

There shall be signs . . .

This article was originally published as a Newsletter on Day 12 of Month 2 on the Creator's Calendar, also known as May 14, 2022 on the Roman Calendar.

It is also the 27th day since the resheet (first) barley offering would have been presented by the priest. We just passed the middle point in the Count to the Feast of Weeks – Shavuot.

I sometimes tune into the radio while I am driving and scan the news to see what the controlled media has decided Americans should focus on.

The primary stories that mainstream media has been recently talking about are the ongoing Ukraine issue, gas prices, the Supreme Court leak of a decision that would reverse Roe v. Wade, and now baby formula shortages.

I also noticed that President Biden and world leaders are continuing to push for massive vaccinations. The money continues the flow to vaccine companies as they push to vaccinate the youngest, even infants, as well as the poor.

They can't let go of the Covid narrative, because it allows them to funnel vast sums of money. It also appears to be an important component of the population reduction and control agenda. A timely world war might enhance that goal. That too provides incredible opportunities to spread around a lot of cash.

Other stories that the mainstream media is not focused on as much include the devastating health consequences of the vaccines, the looming diesel shortages, the continuing supply chain breakdown, the serious drought that is hitting America, and the impending food shortages and famine.

These all fit the agenda of those advocating for a Great Reset and the implementation of a New World Order. If you haven't seen it, check out my short video on The Georgia Guidestones that I produced at the very beginning of the pandemic.

None of these issues are good news, and they all point to difficult days ahead.

Last week, I talked about the fact that we are in the midst of the harvest, and the fact that this was a specific and intense time when people would traditionally work hard to store up food for the upcoming year.

This was not something out of the ordinary. It wasn't panic buying or hoarding. It was simply a part of their regular routine. It was normal to prepare for a full year.

They would then bring their first-fruits (bikkurim) after the wheat harvest to honor Elohim, Who provided them with their bounty - that is, if they were walking in obedience.

If they were not, they would be in drought and famine, and their bikkurim would reflect that.

As they gathered at the House of Elohim, their condition would be obvious, and a good High Priest would either lead the people in celebration, or repentance, depending upon the circumstances.

Today, while America has a variety of people offering political guidance, they are all missing the mark on what America really needs to be considered great in the eyes of YHWH.

First and foremost, they must be His people. They must seek Him and His ways, and follow His instructions. They must also humble themselves.

“If My people who are called by My Name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land.” 2 Chronicles 7:14

That’s the formula for success, and it’s not happening. In fact, many people in American leadership are promoting agendas that will surely lead to the destruction of the country.

The obsession with abortion is one of the greatest issues that I see, and if the leaked opinion of the Supreme Court stands, it may be a litmus test for the people, and the individual states in America.

The decision would essentially leave it for states to decide how to handle abortion. It is, after all, a state issue since the Constitution says nothing about abortion.

Many abortion advocates are outraged, because they know that some states will outlaw the killing of babies.

Imagine that! They want desperately for women to have the choice whether or not to kill her child. Most of the time, it is simply a matter of convenience. For some, it’s more convenient to kill a child than it is to raise a child. What an incredibly sad commentary on these people’s hearts. Pure wickedness.

A woman's right to choose (right to kill) has been classified as a healthcare issue. Incredibly, the argument is woefully deficient. How is it a right for a woman to choose what she does with "her own body" when it is the body of the infant child that is actually being destroyed?

The logic is incredibly flawed, and downright evil. It fails to acknowledge that the child inside of the womb is a miracle provided by YHWH through the union of a man and a woman.

Of course, the transgender mania spreading across the planet is attempting to cloud the order established by YHWH from the beginning of creation.

Now people feel that they can ignore, and even change, their sexual identity based upon how they feel. They then want to impose their delusional, and often "fluid" condition, upon society by compelling others to refer to them using their "preferred pronouns."

These people likely suffer from hormone imbalances, mental health issues, or influence by parents or teachers. Ultimately, it is a spiritual issue at the core. Nevertheless, society is embracing this movement with open arms – thrusting it into the forefront of mainstream society.

Why not fracture and separate society even more?

Sadly, it is a continuation of what we have been witnessing for decades. Divide and conquer is the best way to defeat an enemy. Let your enemy do the work for you by simply disintegrating and collapsing in on itself. You can then simply walk in and pick through the rubble.

America was so focused on nuclear war with the Soviet Union, that they missed the war on culture that was taking place right in front of them. What they saw as a natural evolution of society was really a well-planned and coordinated attack on the moral underpinning of society. It was a culture war that America, and much of western society has lost.

The United States are currently anything but united, as people cling to their personal devices that monitor and track their every move.

While many attempt to veil and transform their identity through the use of avatars in social media and in the Metaverse, it is reflective of the confusion and separation occurring in the real world.

I marvel at the number of people who hide behind false images to represent them online. People have been conditioned to redesign and rename themselves into their own image. Some now want to carry that into their physical existence.

I can go on and on with the trouble this country faces, but the simple fact is that this country is in terrible shape. It is rotting from the inside out because it has no soul (nefesh) - at least not one that is pleasing to YHWH.

As this country decays from the inside, there are forces from the outside attempting to destroy it as well. This has been going on for decades, and the religion of this country has offered no solution.

Christianity was a lawless religion created by Rome, and incorporated loads of pagan traditions from its inception. It then began to divide and fracture into countless denominations until we now see many churches displaying the LGBTQ flag.

That is why the voice from heaven cries out “Come out of her My people, lest you share in her sins and you receive in her plagues.”
Revelation 18:4

This warning applies to all of Babylon, including her religion. It is a mistake to continue to identify with a corrupted religious system, when you are supposed to identify with YHWH.

You are only classified as “My people” when you are in Covenant with Him. If you are in Covenant with Him, then you obey His instructions and display His sign – the Sabbath.

YHWH often assists humble and repentant people, but He allows the destruction of a people who turn their back on Him.

America is not only ignoring YHWH. America has rejected Him and much of society is giving Him a big middle finger. I just noticed this week that they have an emoji for that.

Well, He has an emoji of His own, and it can be viewed in the heavens. It may be that He has a timely response for America, through His signs in the heavens.

If you haven’t had a chance to watch my video Signs in the Heavens, I suggest that you take a look.

We are actually in the midst of a series of solar eclipses over the United States that present a stunning message and warning for this country.

During the course of seven years, from 2017 to 2024, the track of these eclipses create an Aleph Taw over the United States. For those unfamiliar with the Aleph and the Taw, they are the first and last characters of the Hebrew language and combined, they represent The Word.

Yahushua was identifying Himself with the Hebrew Aleph and Taw, rather than the Greek Alpha and Omega in Revelation 1:8, 1:11, 21:6 and 22:13.

So it appears that Yahushua Himself has something special planned for America.

Those signs culminate with a combined penumbral lunar eclipse at Passover, after sunset on March 24, 2024, followed by the third solar eclipse on April 8, 2024. That's less than two years away!

Interestingly, while we are currently in the midst of the harvest, and counting the days and weeks to Shavuot, the Americas are going to get a sign tomorrow night.

A total lunar eclipse, sometimes referred to as a "blood moon" will last for almost 1 1/2 hours.

A partial eclipse will begin at 10:27 p.m. ET Sunday, with the total lunar eclipse starting at 11:29 p.m. ET, according to EarthSky. The total eclipse will end at 12:53 a.m. ET Monday, and the partial eclipse will end at 1:55 a.m. ET Monday.

Just in case you have poor eye sight, this will also be a super moon due to the moon's proximity to earth. So it's going to be big.

Interestingly, it coincides with Pesach Sheni, also known as the Second Passover, that occurs on Day 14 of Month 2.

A penumbral eclipse involves the moon passing through the earth's shadow. The full moon, clothed by the sun, has its light removed. This caused it to appear red – thus the description of a blood moon.

These lunar and solar eclipses involve the sun and the moon, and are unique to our perspective from Earth. They fall within the designated signs involving the two great lights as described in Genesis 1:14.

They are clearly meant to get our attention, and the ancient Babylonians specifically attributed a blood moon as a sign against the king.

I have always warned not to go astray when considering these signs. Specifically, I told people in the past not to get distracted by the “tetrad moon” hype promoted by certain teachers and preachers.

While they probably sold a lot of books and made a lot of money, it was a total non-event, because these were not consistently seen by the same people, and one of them could only be seen in a remote part of the Arctic.

As I have repeatedly stated, a sign is only a sign for those who see it.

So you must place these signs in their proper context, and view them from the proper perspective.

Regardless of the message provided through the sign, I always consider them a reminder to “look up.”

Remember the words of Yahushua when He said: “And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draws near.” Luke 21:28

What were these things?

“And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring.” Luke 21:25

This passage was in direct response to the question concerning the destruction of the Temple, but it sure sounds similar to what we are seeing today. (see Luke 21:5-7) Yahushua was talking about the impending judgment on the House of Yahudah by the Romans in 70 CE.

Nevertheless, I suspect that He would also provide similar signs prior to the judgment of Rome and Babylon.

There was another instance when Yahushua instructed His disciples to “lift up your eyes,” and it involved the harvest.

“Don’t you have a saying, ‘There are yet four months, and then comes harvest?’ Behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white (ripe) already to harvest.” John 4:35

Interestingly, we are currently in the midst of the grain harvest in the Covenant Land when the fields are literally “white” and ready to harvest. Also, there are 4 more months until the fruit harvest that precedes the Feast of Sukkot.

So we are getting a sign in the midst of the harvest.

Coincidence? I think not.

Yahushua made that statement after revealing Himself to a Samaritan woman at Jacob’s Well near Shechem. Joseph’s bones were nearby. The message was clear.

He then went on to state: “³⁶ And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. ³⁷ For in this the saying is true: ‘One sows and another reaps.’ ³⁸ I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors.”
John 4:36-38

Ultimately, all of the bad news filling the world should not distract us from the task at hand.

We simply need to stay focused on the count, and keep preparing.

Our purpose is not to worry about simply saving our own lives. It is about being prepared and ready so that we can labor in the harvest.

Next week, I’ll share some of the lessons that I have learned from the harvest this year.

Shalom

Also, just a reminder that the Battle Cry event is approaching next month. I’m looking forward to sharing more about the Land. You can go to this link to find out more information.

Shema Yisrael (Hear O Yisrael) are the words that Yahushua spoke when asked what was the First Command.

“The first of all the Commandments is: ‘Hear, O Yisrael, YHWH our Elohim, YHWH is one.’”

Mark 12:29

“He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

Matthew 11:15
