

Blessed are the Peacemakers

This article was originally sent out as a weekly message on Day 24 of Month 3 on the Creator's calendar, otherwise known as June 21, 2025, on the Roman calendar.

It's been nineteen days since Shavuot, when we remembered the separation of mankind at Babel, and we celebrated the solution provided by אֱלֹהִים through a Covenant that specifically defined the conduct for His people.

We know that languages were divided at Babel and אֱלֹהִים created all those languages. He is multilingual. He knows them all and when אֱלֹהִים spoke from Mount Sinai, I am pretty sure that the Words spoken by Him penetrated the inner beings of people. No matter what language they spoke, they understood those words.

Nearly 1,500 years later, the Set Apart Spirit actually helped individual people speak in diverse languages so that all the people from the Nations gathered in Jerusalem for Shavuot could understand. That even set the stage for the regathering of the Nations that is ongoing. It revealed that now, all the Nations could receive the Word and enter into the Kingdom through a renewed Covenant.

Yesterday I had a wonderful time of fellowship with a brother from Mexico. We weren't discussing how Texans fought against Mexico and took land that later became part of the United States of America. We weren't interested in the Nations we were born in. Rather, we were focused on the Kingdom that we were "reborn" into.

We talked about the miracles in our lives that resulted from the love of אֱלֹהִים and His precious Son. We even talked about the last miracle of Yahushua and the 153 fish. We also discussed the importance of loving our neighbor as we fish for the Sons of Elohim.

That's a far different conversation than I see occurring with many Christians these days as the drumbeat of war gets louder and louder. More on that in a bit, but I wanted to start by maintaining focus amidst all the news that surrounds us.

While we are beyond the 50 day count from Unleavened Bread to Shavuot, we are in the midst of another count when Moses was up on the Mountain receiving the terms of the Covenant. This was the time, when He was up on the Mountain, that the people made an idol and declared a pagan feast to אֱלֹהִים.

Remember that אֱלֹהִים was interrupted by the people while speaking the Words. There weren't just ten. In fact, the eleventh command spoken by אֱלֹהִים was "You shall not make anything to be with Me - gods of silver or gods of gold you shall not make for yourselves." Exodus 20:23

If they had only kept listening, but they couldn't take it anymore. So they asked Moses to intervene and listen to the rest of them. They preferred to hear from a man, rather than אֱלֹהִים.

It seems hard to believe, but I wasn't there. I don't know what the Voice of אֱלֹהִים sounded like. When I was at Sinai several months ago, I could hear how sound reverberated significantly down from the heights, but it clearly wasn't the same.

I can get some idea of what it sounded like from Psalm 29, which describes the Voice of אֱלֹהִים.

"¹ Give unto אֱלֹהִים, O you mighty ones, give unto אֱלֹהִים glory and strength. ² Give unto אֱלֹהִים the glory due to His name; Worship אֱלֹהִים in the beauty of holiness. ³ The voice of אֱלֹהִים is over the waters; The El of glory thunders; אֱלֹהִים is over many waters. ⁴ The voice of אֱלֹהִים is powerful; The voice of אֱלֹהִים is full of majesty. ⁵ The voice of אֱלֹהִים breaks the cedars, Yes, אֱלֹהִים splinters the cedars of Lebanon. ⁶ He makes them also skip like a calf, Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox. ⁷ The voice of אֱלֹהִים divides the flames of fire. ⁸ The voice of אֱלֹהִים shakes the wilderness; אֱלֹהִים shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh. ⁹ The voice of אֱלֹהִים makes the deer give birth, and strips the forests bare; and in His Palace (heykal) everyone says, 'Glory!' ¹⁰ אֱלֹהִים sat enthroned at the Flood, and אֱלֹהִים sits as King forever. ¹¹ אֱלֹהִים will give strength to His people; אֱלֹהִים will bless His אֲמֹל-people with shalom." Psalm 29:1-11

Clearly, the Voice is powerful. It strips forests bare and actually causes animals to give birth. But did you notice how it ended?

אֱלֹהִים will bless His אֲמֹל-people with shalom. So, despite the power of His voice, shalom will follow.

Of course, that begs the question: “Who are His X⚔-people?” Who are the X⚔-people who will find peace and fulfillment? That is, after all, the meaning of shalom.

Well, we know that the Aleph Tav (X⚔) points to the Messiah, and we know that true shalom is found in the relationship established through the Covenant He renewed.

I point this out as we are currently watching the modern State of Israel wreak havoc throughout the Middle East. They have been at war since their inception in 1948, and they are presently at war with several different entities, including the Nation of Iran.

I have been making an effort to avoid all the political deception going on, as it can be a huge distraction from the message. Nevertheless, now that Israel has decided that it was critical to suddenly attack Iran in the midst of negotiations, I felt it was important to point out a few things as the rhetoric, propaganda, and manipulation reach a climax.

I specifically recall the groundwork laid for the War on Iraq in 2003 as Benjamin Netanyahu testified before Congress that Saddam Hussein was “feverishly” working toward weapons of mass destruction. I also remember Collin Powell laying out all the supposed proofs regarding the Iraqi weapons program.

This urgency was then sprinkled with stories about what a bad guy Saddam was, even though he was America’s guy for a long time during his war against Iran.

I suppose he should have heeded the words of Henry Kissinger: “It may be dangerous to be America’s enemy, but to be America’s friend is fatal.”

He found that out the hard way, and we all know how that war ended.

The United States was sold on the idea of war. September 11 was still fresh in their minds. Sadly, while the military-industrial complex got rich, a lot of soldiers and Iraqis got dead. Hundreds of thousands of civilians were killed because of that war, and radical splinter groups emerged to specifically fight against the perceived aggressor – the United States of America.

As a result of America's response to the September 11 event, we have been in a perpetual war against terror. In fact, President George Bush issued Executive Order 13224 on September 23, 2001, that actually defined who was classified as a terrorist. The definition of a terrorist is certainly up for debate, as I mentioned in my book The Israel Dilemma.

Israel recently initiated a surprise attack on Iran while it slept. They assassinated military leaders and nuclear scientists in their homes with their families, they admitted to setting off car bombs in Tehran, and sending out assassination teams to kill various people throughout the country. And let's not forget the previous pager attacks in Lebanon. That all sounds a lot like what terrorists do.

I recall watching a replay of Benjamin Netanyahu's speech before the United Nations on September 27, 2012. It was Yom Kippur on the Creator's calendar, a day when he should have been fasting and praying if he truly represented the people of יִשְׂרָאֵל.

Instead, he was giving a speech holding up a picture of a bomb, lying to the Nations of the world that Iran was weeks away from a nuclear bomb. That was over twelve years ago, and he was wrong.

In fact, for decades, Benjamin Netanyahu has been claiming that Iran was only weeks or months away from having a nuclear bomb. He has been very open about the fact that he wanted a regime change in Iran.

It's the same game plan used to set the stage for war against Iraq in order to take down the regime. Now, the same tactics are being used to take down a different regime. It is an attempt to manipulate the people and gain popularity for a war involving toppling a government and changing the regime.

Of course, that's what governments do. It's nothing new in the course of history. The only thing that concerns me is how followers of Yahushua respond.

I remember as a young boy being taught to hate Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini because the Iranians kidnapped our embassy staff. The people who taught me to hate the Iranian revolutionaries failed to tell me how the American CIA orchestrated a coup in Iran in 1953, known as Operation Ajax. The United Kingdom was also heavily involved.

The Iranians were understandably upset by the actions of the Americans and the British that set up a puppet regime in order to gain access to Iranian oil. In fact, after the coup, the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company became the British Petroleum Company - BP.

A little background and context often helps to get the big picture, as I've been discussing for several weeks now.

Propaganda and false doctrines are usually only effective when people are ignorant of history and context. They are the most vulnerable to accepting lies. Of course, that is why history is so poorly taught in public schools. It is fragmented and confused, so most graduates of the public educational history system have no idea how to properly view world events in light of history.

Now that is one symptom of a system that students attend five days a week, for ten months out of a year, for at least twelve years of their lives.

Imagine the ability to manipulate people on spiritual issues when they only attend church one day a week, and their training is generally limited to a 20 to 30-minute sermon.

Is it any wonder that we have tens of millions of Christians standing with Israel while they commit genocide?

Well, now America is being sucked into another war due to the same “imminent” threat of weapons of mass destruction that we have heard about for decades.

Despite the fact that President Trump’s handpicked Director of National Intelligence testified in March that Iran did not have a bomb and was not building a bomb, President Trump said He doesn’t care what she said.

We now hear the constant and repeated mantra “Iran cannot have a nuclear bomb. World peace depends upon it.” Now I don’t know whether Iran has a bomb or not, but honestly, I don’t know any American who has lost sleep over being bombed by Iran.

Iran is not an existential threat to the United States, but for some reason, the United States is desperate to go to war with Iran. I think we all know the reason by now.

What began as stopping an imminent nuclear threat quickly evolved into regime change. The press wasted no time posting stories of the oppressive Iranian theocracy and the maltreatment of women and Christians.

I don’t deny any of that, but I’m not sure that qualifies as a reason to go to war against another country.

As I watch all of the propaganda, I find it interesting that many of the pictures I see depict Benjamin Netanyahu on the left, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei on the right, and Donald Trump in the middle.

It’s really an interesting contrast of the West versus the East conflict. While I know very little about the Ayatollah, one thing I do know is that he likely looks an awful lot like an ancient Yisraelite, especially the Levitical Priests.

Now I'm not saying that he descended from Yisrael or has anything to do with אֱלֹהִים, I'm just saying that he looks like an ancient Hebrew, and I think that makes a lot of people in the West uncomfortable. The beard, the turban, and the robes all stir up emotions and both societal and religious prejudices.

On the other hand, clean-shaven, well-dressed, smooth-talking, English-speaking Netanyahu makes Westerners feel comfortable.

The imagery is profound, and America clearly supports the man in the suit, who represents the future, not the religious hardliner who represents the past.

In fact, in a recent interview with Tucker Carlson, Texas Senator Ted Cruz described the Ayatollah as "a religious zealot" – "a lunatic driven by religious fervor."

During the same interview, he indicated that he was the leading defender of the modern State of Israel in Congress because he believes that Christians are commanded in the Bible to bless Israel.

When pressed on where the Bible commands such a thing, he could not provide a quote. He then acknowledged his belief that the secular Zionist State of Israel is the reestablished Covenant Assembly of Yisrael.

So, we have a powerful U.S. Senator who is unabashedly promoting the interests of the modern State of Israel, based upon disastrous theological doctrine, courtesy of Evangelical Christianity.

He has no idea what his religious text actually says, but he is willing to see people killed based on his ignorance. He is willing to destroy countries based upon what he describes as his "personal beliefs."

Now that sounds like a religious zealot driven by religious fervor to me.

Senator Cruz now believes that the most acute and near-term threat to America is a nuclear Iran. I wonder if that has anything to do with the $1,872,038 that he has received from AIPAC. I think that the money is likely very persuasive - the turban is just the icing on the cake.

And based upon that visual juxtaposition between the suit and the robe, it's not so hard to convince Americans to stand with Israel and obliterate Iran. That is, after all, consistent with what America does.

It projects power, goes to war, and beats people up who stand in its way. It pretends to promote an international rules-based order for the world, but ignores the international laws and courts if it doesn't agree with them, especially if they try to hold Israel accountable for anything, including the recent genocide. Now, I have never been a fan of the United Nations, but the hypocrisy is incredible.

Speaking of genocide, I find it incredible that Israel has not skipped a beat in their genocide in Gaza, despite the fact that they decided to go to war with Iran. I would have thought the extermination plan for the Palestinians in Gaza would at least be put on hold for a couple of weeks, but they continue to kill starving people standing in line for food every day.

How do they manage all of the death and destruction? It's simply mindboggling. But it's also important to understand that the IDF is not doing all of this alone.

The United States, the United Kingdom, and Germany, among others, have been providing intelligence support, rearming, refueling, and funding the operation in the background.

That is because Israel is really just a tool for the New World Order. It was actually “conceived” by the Illuminati and “authorized” by the United Nations.

Last year, I mentioned the plan to establish the New World Order as outlined in Grand Master Albert Pike’s letter to Giuseppe Mazzini. Here is the Illuminati plan allegedly included in that letter.

“The First World War must be brought about in order to permit the Illuminati to overthrow the power of the Czars in Russia and of making that country a fortress of atheistic Communism. The divergences caused by the "agentur" (agents) of the Illuminati between the British and Germanic Empires will be used to foment this war. At the end of the war, Communism will be built and used in order to destroy the other governments and in order to weaken the religions.

The Second World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences between the Fascists and the political Zionists. This war must be brought about so that Nazism is destroyed and that the political Zionism be strong enough to institute a sovereign state of Israel in Palestine. During the Second World War, International Communism must become strong enough in order to balance Christendom, which would be then restrained and held in check until the time when we would need it for the final social cataclysm.

The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the "agentur" of the "Illuminati" between the political Zionists and the leaders of Islamic World. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic World) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. Meanwhile the other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion... We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil.

Then everywhere, the citizens, obliged to defend themselves against the world minority of revolutionaries, will exterminate those destroyers of civilization, and the multitude, disillusioned with Christianity, whose deistic spirits will from that moment be without compass or direction, anxious for an ideal, but without knowing where to render its adoration, will receive the true light through the universal manifestation of the pure doctrine of Lucifer, brought finally out in the public view.

This manifestation will result from the general reactionary movement which will follow the destruction of Christianity and atheism, both conquered and exterminated at the same time."

We seem to be witnessing the plan laid out in the letter, and the amazing part is that Christian Zionists are willing participants in the process.

A couple of years ago, I specifically discussed the plans of the United States to take out Iran. It wasn't prophetic. I was simply revealing the published neocon plan to reshape the Middle East as part of the New World Order.

Here is what I wrote in the October 27, 2023 message titled "A Nation Born in a Day?"

In September 2000, the neo-con Christian Zionist think tank published a report titled Rebuilding America's Defenses, Strategy, Forces and Resources For a New Century.

The group recommended regime change in Iraq and proposed a revolution in US military capabilities, including global missile defense “to provide a secure basis for U.S. power projection around the world” and the creation of a new service – US Space Forces – with the mission of space control. It stated that this “process of transformation ... is likely to be a long one, absent some catastrophic and catalyzing event – like a new Pearl Harbor.”

Hmmm. A new Pearl Harbor?

This was all “predicted” right before September 11, 2001 (9/11) that led to the regime change in Iraq. Could that be a coincidence?

And why did America attack Iraq after 9/11?

Oh yeah. America invaded Iraq in March 2003 because the Saudi national Osama Bin Laden was the mastermind who orchestrated the 9/11 attacks from a cave in Afghanistan. (Pause for head scratch)

Of course that all makes perfect sense to those in the PNAC (Project for a New American Century). They had their “new Pearl Harbor” and could push for their desired regime change.

Most Americans were just happy to bomb somebody. Anyone defined as a terrorist would do. They needed to satisfy their urge for revenge, and that is exactly what we see going on now in the Middle East.

Israel is going to go way overboard in their response to the Hamas attack which could set off a domino effect.

It's a complicated web, and far too much to detail in this brief highlight of some historical events.

Again, my only point is that things are not always as they seem. A lot of patriotic Americans felt good about pummeling Iraq and deposing Saddam Hussein, who actually used to be a strong ally of the Americans.

Sadly, there were credible estimates in the range of 200,000 civilian deaths in that operation. And what did it accomplish? Iran now has significant influence in the politics of Iraq. That was a brilliant move on the part of the United States. Consider the human suffering that it caused. But at least it made a lot of people rich.

I can assure you that Israel's 9/11 and Pearl Harbor will lead to similar results. A lot of innocent lives will be lost to accomplish the objectives of different nations, corporations, organizations and evil people.

America's 9/11 led to the Patriot Act and the never-ending war on terror.

The phrase "axis of evil" was first used by U.S. President George W. Bush and originally referred to Iran, Iraq, and North Korea. It was used in Bush's State of the Union address on January 29, 2002, less than five months after the 9/11 attacks and almost a year before the 2003 invasion of Iraq, and often repeated throughout his presidency.

General Wesley Clark reported that ten days after the 9/11 attack he was told that America made the decision to go to war against Iraq. Then, two weeks later, he was shown how they would take out seven countries in five years: Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and Iran.

The conclusion from all of this is that Iran is on America's hit list. The United States meddled in their country's affairs years ago, and they took out their revenge during the revolution by taking American hostages. Iran now seems to be the goal.

Well, I have to say that my statements were accurate because I was simply repeating their plan.

While many MAGA followers were misled to "trust the plan" of some anonymous Q character, little did they know that a different plan was being fulfilled right under their noses. It was the same plan that had been going on for decades, no matter who sat in the Oval Office.

Many self-described Patriots and Neocons probably think their plan for a New American Century is a good thing, the question is, "Good for whom?"

The problem with nationalistic plans is that they affect a lot of people. So far, the New American Century has resulted in chaos, death, and destruction for many nations and millions of people.

Neocons often present their actions to the public as a righteous cause, but in reality, it's mostly a facade to achieve their true objectives: power and wealth.

Again, that's nothing new. It is simply the story of history, and that is what Nations do. The important thing to remember is that while we live in this world, we are not of this world. That is what I try to remind people of each week.

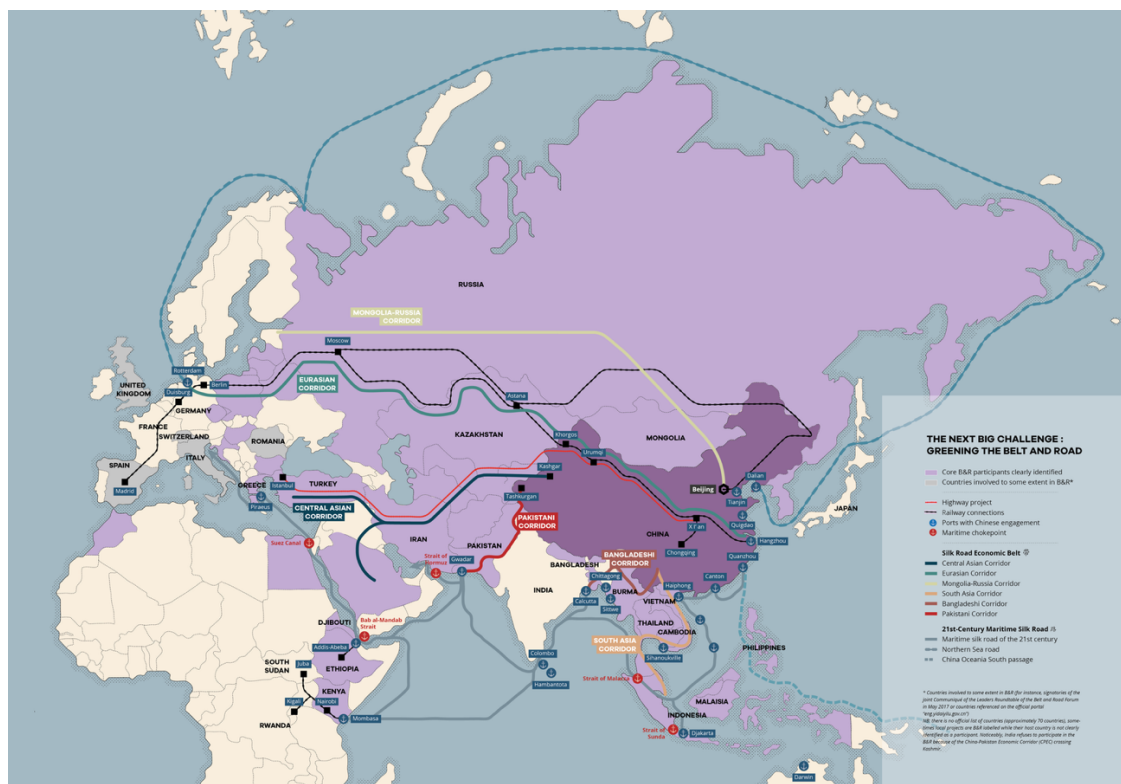

I was born and raised in the United States of America and the Christian Church, but ultimately, I had to align myself with One King and focus on the priorities of His Kingdom.

That is what many Christians fail to do, especially Christian Zionists.

And what I find particularly disturbing is people who claim to follow the Messiah, gleefully wringing their hands at the prospect of a war with Iran.

Senator Lindsey Graham posted “Game on” after Israel began their attack on Iran last week. In that same post, he exhorted people to “Pray for Israel.”

That post spoke volumes because to some people, this is simply a high-stakes game. Neocons see this as another move in their chess game to subvert the plans of the Chinese Belt and Road Initiative and BRICS. Iran plays a significant role in China’s future plans. It also provides China with a lot of oil.

Others, like Christian Zionists, see this as a “Holy War” and an opportunity for the Battle of Armageddon and the return of Jesus.

In fact, I suspect this might be the opportune time for the Jews to build their Temple to receive their messiah. Why not? What have they got to lose? And, after all, many Muslims are anticipating their mahdi.

It seems like this would be a good time for a messiah to arrive, and several religions are currently expecting their version of a messiah. I think that they’re all going to be in for a big surprise.

Here’s what the text of Revelation has to say about the return of The One True Messiah:

“¹¹ Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself. ¹³ He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of Elohim. ¹⁴ And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. ¹⁵ Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the Nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty Elohim. ¹⁶ And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.” Revelation 19:11-16

Yahushua is coming to make war and judge, and it’s not going to be pretty. That’s why it is important to be on the right side – His side. The way we can be certain we are on the right side is to be known by Him and found doing His work when He returns. That involves bearing good fruit.

I had originally planned to expand more on the question of how to bear good fruit, but I got interrupted by World War III. This actually has a lot to do with the issue of good fruit, though.

Next week, I hope to delve into that issue a little further, especially in light of the prophecies that people are misinterpreting and misapplying due to their limited understanding of history and the Scriptures.

I see a lot of people trying to apply Ezekiel 38 to the war against Iran, but they cannot square modern Israel with the people described in the text. Specifically, “a land of unwallled villages . . . a peaceful people, who dwell in safety, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars or gates.” Ezekiel 38:11

This is definitely not a description of the modern State of Israel, which is literally a police security state on the verge of war all the time. It is the exact opposite of what is being described in the text. I wrote about this eschatological problem in my book The Final Shofar. Hopefully, next week we can discuss Ezekiel further in its proper context.

For now, I would encourage you to avoid the rotten figs and the bad fruit of death and destruction being promoted by the warmongers of the world.

Remember the big picture that we have been focusing on, which is the Master’s plan to replenish His Kingdom with a family and restore the Nations and Creation through His Son.

That was the amazing message contained within the last miracle of Yahushua involving the 153 fish caught in the net that did not break.

Those 153 fish represented “Sons of Elohim” in Hebrew, and Yahushua trained His disciples to fish for men who would be drawn into the Kingdom and be transformed into Sons of Elohim. That miracle was the exclamation point of His ministry.

He told His disciples to go out into the Nations to fish for those Sons of Elohim, not to go to war to kill people so that certain Jews who reject Him can take over the Middle East.

I say this often, but it's true. Most Christians simply do not believe Yahushua. They claim to follow Jesus, but they don't follow the Messiah's instructions in the New Testament.

That is why Yahushua asked: "But why do you call me 'Lord, Lord' and not do the things which I say?" Luke 6:46

He's going to be asking a lot of people that question when He returns and we know it's going to result in weeping and gnashing of teeth for many.

So, if you follow King Yahushua then you should remember His words:

*"Blessed are the peacemakers
for they shall be called Sons of Elohim."*
Matthew 5:9

All those who desire to become Sons of Elohim should be seeking peace through love until the King returns to judge the Nations.

Remember that אָדֹנָי will bless His אֱלֹהִים-people with shalom (peace). His אֱלֹהִים-people are the Peacemakers!

PS – It is quite obvious that my recent book The Israel Dilemma was very timely, especially with the recent actions taken by Israel. I am watching certain Christians get beguiled into thinking that they have to not only stand with the modern State of Israel, but now they must repent to the Jewish people for past maltreatment by Christians. This is largely the result of Christian leaders allowing Rabbis into their congregations, and it is all a distraction from the message of Yahushua – Repent for the Kingdom of Elohim draws near.

The Israel Dilemma contains an important message that needs to be shared, so I have decided that I will be posting the PDF version for free on the website. I am also going to be printing and mailing physical copies to people who may be in a position to receive and disseminate the information. If you have contact information for certain people, please feel free to share it with me.

As you may be aware, we print and mail out free books regularly to prisons and those in need. This can get quite expensive. There are certain people who contribute regularly, and I want to express my heartfelt thanks for helping keep things going.

This is especially important as I find myself spread thin between Texas and New York. If you would like to help out, we gladly accept donations through the website (www.shemayisrael.net), or you can mail donations to:

Shema Yisrael

Once I get the PDF posted online, feel free to download it and give it away. The most important thing is to help open the eyes of those who are deceived.

Shema Yisrael (Hear O Yisrael) are the words that Yahushua spoke when asked what was the First Command.

“The first of all the Commandments is: *‘Hear, O Yisrael,
יהוה יהוה our Elohim, יהוה יהוה is one.’*
Mark 12:29

“He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”
Matthew 11:15
