

The Rise of Asclepius

Discerning the pagan origins of the modern medical system.

I am writing this message on Day 9 of Month 6 on the Creator's Calendar which is August 29, 2020 on the Gregorian calendar. We are less than a month away from Month 7 and the Appointed Time of Yom Teruah (Day of Blasting) that will occur on Day 1 of Month 7. Very interestingly, Day 1 of Month 7 will fall on Shabbat, the seventh day of the week.

On that day, shofars will sound around the world, as an important reminder that YHWH is operating on His own calendar, separate and distinct from the Babylonian system that is currently perpetrating a false calendar based upon a pagan reckoning.

The Scriptural Month 7 will begin on September 19, 2020 on the Gregorian calendar. While the pagans count September as the 9th month on their solar calendar, the word September actually means "seventh month".

So the latin name of the month actually reveals the real time and this just goes to show how deluded and deceived the world really is. With the truth right in front of their faces, most of the world simply shuffles along in a comatose state of apathy, simply believing the information that has been fed to them since they were children, never questioning the false narrative.

People need to be awakened from their slumber and they need to hear the voice of Elohim and see the light of His truth. So make sure you are heard and seen in the days to come.

With the people of the world currently paralyzed by government restrictions and lockdowns, it has some people waking up and wondering what exactly is going on? Why are governments imposing restrictions and regulations that are clearly destroying the economy and ruining people's lives? How can people who are called "public servants" be acting like tyrants?

In America, when the Covid hysteria began, it was easy to discern some people's motivations. It originally boiled down to a "red state" versus a "blue state" test. For those unaware of these distinctions, a "red state" refers to a state that leans right of the political spectrum toward the republicans. That usually means the constitution is promoted and followed according to its "original intent."

A "blue state" refers to a state that leans to the left side of the political spectrum and is usually run by democrats who look to the constitution as an evolving document subject to change depending upon the times and the circumstances

As a result, it was not too surprising when Democratic Governors completely ignored the Constitution and the legislative process and began acting as despotic tyrants, subverting the rule of law, using the excuse of Covid-19.

That changed over time and ultimately most Governors, both Democratic and Republican alike, ended up imposing the same illegal requirements in lock step, ignoring the Constitution and compelling their constituents to be subjected to draconian measures.

At first it appeared that there might be some shining stars - some principled individuals - who could stand up against the mounting pressure, but just about everyone caved.

So who was a tyrant and who was just spineless, that is the real question?

Well, there may be a test for that. It appears that there are some who may have reluctantly ignored the rights of individuals and usurped their authority out of true concern. They were provided with inaccurate models and wildly inflated and distorted numbers. They were fed “expert opinions” that were not supported by facts, and it is possible that some were simply misled.

Others simply relished the opportunity. They desired the changes occurring in society and continue to claim that it must continue until we achieve a new normal. They are pushing for a “reset” and typically espouse that we will not get back to normal until we have a vaccine. These are the people to really watch out for because they are outright lying and they are the enemy of everyday people who just want to work and live their lives, unfettered by government restrictions.

I say that they are liars because a vaccine has never been the solution to any ongoing epidemic or pandemic, especially not a coronavirus. There have been seven previously identified coronavirus strains and none of them have ever had a vaccine. So why would anyone assume that there can be a successful vaccine for the SARS-Cov2 virus?

The flu shot has been around for seven decades and it has not stopped the flu from killing as many people each year as those who have supposedly died from Covid-19 caused by the SARS-Cov2 virus.

Therefore, there is absolutely zero evidence to support the notion that a fast-tracked experimental mRNA vaccine will be the magic pill for this manufactured pandemic. As a result, they have set the stage for a lot of people to become experimental guinea pigs with the hope of returning to their former lives, with the real likelihood that there will never be a return to that normal.

This laser focus on a vaccine cure also ignores the fact that several very successful protocols have been developed that are highly effective, yet suppressed at every level. Why would they do this if they were really concerned about people's health?

The answer is obvious. This has all been a means to an end, and the end is the vaccine. There are forces at work that do not want a cure. They simply want a DNA altering vaccine.

So every governmental official, or private individual, who espouses a vaccine as the only viable solution to the Covid-19 situation and a return to normal is working against you. They are your enemy, whether they know it or not.

It gets a little tiring hearing the so-called "experts" and "leaders" speak with their condescending and patronizing tones stating that they would love to set all of the enslaved and decimated citizens free, but that's just not going to be possible until we get a vaccine - as if they actually had evidence to support that notion. This is especially disturbing since they are the ones who created the problem - not the virus. So they created the problem, to get the reaction that will result in the desired solution. This is basic Hegelian Dialectics.

All of the evidence suggests that the virus peaked and deaths have dwindled. It is an absolute fact that the reported deaths were highly exaggerated because they "cooked the books." They make no bones about that fact, but now even the exaggerated numbers are dwindling because the virus is burning out and most cultures have reached what they call "herd immunity" - as was expected.

In fact, there is no difference in the death rates and ultimate outcome when you compare Sweden to New York, for instance. Remember that Sweden actually made rational decisions and did not lock down despite the criticisms of most of the world. The big difference is that New Yorkers are still being forced to wear masks while Swedes never were required to do so. Also, the Swedes remained free and did not destroy their economy, while New York has been decimated.

So the tyrants were wrong, but they won't admit it and it doesn't appear that they have any intention of correcting their mistakes. In fact, they are hell bent in continuing their tyranny, but they need high numbers to complete their ultimate goal of a "reset". So they have tactfully switched gears.

Americans are now being inundating with the number of "cases" that exist. Some now refer to the fact that the so-called pandemic is now a "case-demic".

Well what on earth is a case? Is it when someone shows symptoms, feels sick, goes to the doctor or the hospital?

Oh no. It only means that someone has tested positive using the highly ineffective and inappropriate PCR test that was never intended to be a test in the first place. That is why the powers that be are so focused on testing. They need lots of positive test results, even though most all people are asymptomatic, in order to support the narrative that we are still in a pandemic.

So in order to get lots of positive tests, they need lots of tests. Now mind you, this results of lots of money for the companies that make those tests and provide results for those tests. In Florida, they found that the testing from some companies was resulting in 100 percent positive results, which is statistically impossible.

So the tests are not accurate, everybody knows that. But it doesn't matter. They need those constant positive tests results to add to the fudged death rates to keep this illusion going. The large numbers of "cases" allows them to justify continued mask requirements and the continual quarantines and lock downs along with the contact tracing control system that is being implemented. It also buys them the time they need for their final solution.

So we have a pandemic supported by "cases" that have no correlation to the number of deaths attributed to the virus, and we know that the deaths are highly exaggerated as we have already examined ad nauseum.

In fact, the statistics are very clear that 99.9 percent of people who contract the virus recover, and it is primarily the sick and the elderly who succumb. So if you simply stopped these inaccurate tests, the pandemic would fizzle out and go away.

Armed with that information, any reasonable person would realize that they have made a horrible mistake and should immediately reverse course. Take for instance, the top UK epidemiologist and government advisor Mark Woolhouse. He stated several days ago that "Lockdown was a panic measure and I believe history will say trying to control through lockdown was a monumental mistake on a global scale, the cure was worse than the disease . . . I never want to see national lockdown again."

Wow, an honest scientist. He confirmed what many of us have been saying since this began. Now that the truth is obvious that means we return to normal and simply isolate the vulnerable right? Wrong!

It's not about people, it's about an agenda – it always was. They want to lock down the world, destroy the world economy, destroy people's lives, make them all wear masks and wait with baited (oxygen deprived) breath for a dangerous and untested vaccine. Facts don't matter because this is about the reset that brings about the New World Order.

Well, there is so much obvious fraud and deception associated with this Covid-19 staged pandemic that it is simply stunning that people ever believed it and still believe it.

The problem as I see it is that many people have been beaten into submission. They are simply tired, defeated and impoverished with an uncertain future. Their response is not necessarily voluntary.

Many have been coerced and manipulated into wearing masks by state and local officials, which sadly makes everyone who complies a participant in the drama. The mandatory wearing of masks actually helps perpetuate the appearance of a pandemic by making everybody a part the illusion. Without the masks the illusion utterly fails.

Take away masks, inaccurate tests, fabricated death tolls and constant media bombardment and it becomes crystal clear that we are not in a pandemic.

The problem is that there are actually many who believe the lies. Not only do they believe it, they swallowed it hook, line and sinker. I still see people hiking in the woods wearing masks, driving alone in their cars wearing masks, jogging on the street wearing masks, as if there are tiny virus particles blowing in the wind all over the world that might unknowingly get inhaled without a mask.

That is not true, but if that were the case, their mask wouldn't do anything anyway because the virus particles are too small to be stopped by a buff or a mask. The masks are not even effective.

Nevertheless, there is a group of ill-informed fanatics who are acting as cheerleaders for the tyrants. The problem is, if everyone is wearing a mask you cannot tell the difference. Who are part of the problem and who is the resistance? They all look the same, and now they have to stay six feet apart in public so they cannot even interact to discuss the situation. You can only tell who is who if you take off your mask and see their response.

People have been isolated from other people and are now extremely reliant upon their highly censored and heavily biased internet newsfeeds and television news channels. Of course, isolation is a powerful tactic used by tyrants for controlling the masses.

There is no question that this entire event was planned, rehearsed and coordinated. It is an orchestrated takedown of the world as we know it with a very specific objective – the vaccine.

What we are witnessing is exactly what President Eisenhower warned about in his 1961 farewell address when he stated “in holding scientific research and discovery in respect, as we should, we must also be alert to the equal and opposite danger that public policy could itself become the captive of a scientific-technological elite.”

He specifically warned about what we are currently witnessing. Leaders who were elected to support and defend the Constitution completely ignored their oaths and submitted to the opinion of a scientific-technological elite who were wrong at almost every turn. They are allowing these elite “experts” to control public policy.

I call what we are witnessing the rise of Asclepius.

I have mentioned Asclepius in the past, but felt it was worth examining a bit further. Asclepius is a hero and god of medicine in ancient Greek religion and mythology. He is the son of Apollo – therefore a “son of god” – one of the Nephilim described in Genesis 6:4. He is even depicted as a giant in various pictures and sculptures.

Asclepius represents the healing aspect of the medical arts. He was associated with the Roman/Etruscan god Vediovis and the Egyptian Imhotep. His symbol, “The rod of Asclepius”, was a snake-entwined staff and it remains a symbol of medicine and the modern medical system.

According to ancient myth, the god Asclepius had the power to raise people from the dead and he himself was restored to life by Zeus. For this reason he was thought to also have a snake form. Tame snakes were kept in his temples as this reptile was regarded as a symbol of regeneration, due to the shedding and regrowth of their skin.

People would travel to the temples of Asclepius and stay there to receive healing just like we see with modern hospitals. The priests of Asclepius were the doctors and physicians who gave prescriptions and rendered treatments to sick people.

That all seems so remote to us today, but we live in a culture that is controlled by a medical system that uses the rod of Asclepius and claims to have the answers for health.

The modern medical system uses a very specific model of medicine referred to as the allopathic model. Allopathic medicine refers to a system in which medical doctors and other healthcare professionals (such as nurses, pharmacists, and therapists) treat symptoms and diseases using drugs, radiation, or surgery. This system is also called biomedicine, conventional medicine, mainstream medicine, orthodox medicine, and Western medicine.

So, instead of recognizing that the body is a powerful creation with self-healing mechanisms and a powerful built in immune system designed to defend against diseases, modern medicine generally looks to using intervention from the outside.

You have a headache? Here's a pill to suppress the pain. Feeling sad? Here's a pill to make you feel better. You've got cancer? Here's a dose of radiation or some toxic chemicals. Let's try to kill all the bad cells before we kill you. That didn't work? Well let's start cutting pieces out of your body until we get it all.

It's all rather crude and barbaric, but most people have been conditioned into thinking it is the only model. They believe that is the only way that a person can find healing – through the system that bears the symbol of Asclepius.

Other methods of healing such as naturopathy and homeopathy or chiropractic care are considered to be non-conventional or alternative medicine. Usually these are treated as fringe medicine or treatments of last resort.

We largely have John D. Rockefeller to thank for that. John D Rockefeller, the oil baron, and richest man in the world in the early 1900's is often attributed with turning our modern medical system into a business. He used his vast wealth to control medical education, training and licensing in order to turn the medical system away from natural treatments to a system that could utilize byproducts from his petrochemical business, such as aspirin.

“Aspirin is only one of the numerous medications that has its base in petrochemicals. Many over-the-counter (OTC) and prescription drugs and medicinal products are made with the help of petrochemicals - these include antihistamines, antibacterials, suppositories, cough syrups, lubricants, creams, ointments, salves, analgesics and gels.

What's the connection? Hydrocarbons are organic molecules.

Most pharmaceutical drugs are made via chemical reactions that involve the use of organic molecules. Petroleum is a plentiful source of organic molecules that feed into the drug synthesis process. Some sources cite as much as 99% of pharmaceutical feedstocks and reagents as coming from petrochemical sources." Petroleum in Real Life, context.capp.ca

So now, we now have a medical system that is largely connected to the oil industry, believe it or not, and we haven't even looked at the use of plastics in the medical supply arena.

This "modern" medical system looks for healing solutions in petroleum based drugs instead natural solutions that were used for centuries. Of course, this shift turned out to be incredibly profitable for Rockefeller because it resulted in the expansion of the pharmaceutical industry that we see today.

So it's all business and we see how enormous the medical and pharmaceutical industry is today. The goal of pharmaceutical companies is not to heal people, but simply alleviate symptoms and maintain lifetime customers. Imagine if they actually produced something that healed a person in one dose? That wouldn't be very profitable. Instead, they want people to take their products forever, and not just one product. They would like people to take as many pills as possible.

After all, they are a business – just like McDonalds. The goal of McDonalds is to sell as many hamburgers as possible to as many people as possible. Likewise, the goal of every drug company is to sell as many drugs as possible to as many people as possible and to make as much money as possible. After all, they are not charities.

Speaking of charities, there is an interesting modern day parallel involving another one of the world's richest men – Bill Gates.

Gates, like Rockefeller, was a ruthless businessman who made vast fortunes by dominating the software market involving computer operating systems. Gates, like Rockefeller, underwent a transformation, using the media, and is now referred to as a “philanthropist” and founder of The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

It is important to note that, despite its name, the Foundation is a highly profitable business venture and has allowed Gates to pursue his global objectives under the guise of charity. His donations to different organizations achieve his business objections of research and development and marketing and the product is vaccines.

He even admitted at Davos and in the Wall Street Journal, that his efforts in the medical realm have been highly profitable. It is a win-win because he also has the added benefit of being lauded as a philanthropist, instead of being despised and getting pies thrown in his face, as he amasses his fortunes.

Gates is obsessed with vaccinating the world for every possible sickness and disease, not because he loves all of the children in India and Africa. On the contrary, it is highly profitable for him.

I have discussed the problem with vaccines for years and the new vaccine for Covid-19 is even more problematic. It is using untested and unreliable technology and the recent results on test subjects have not been good.

Regardless, all hope for society has been placed in developing a vaccine quickly in massive quantities. That is a perfect scenario for those looking to make massive profits from vaccines, and who will have no exposure from damages because they have been given governmental immunity. Indeed, they already received enormous down payments from US taxpayers as the US government gave away billions to drug companies to fund their product development.

I wish I had a business where the government would give me billions so that I could create a product that I could then sell to them for billions more – and no one could sue me. What a scam and what corruption we are witnessing!

So please do not be deceived, the vaccine is not about saving the world from Covid-19, it is about money and power. When you listen to Gates talk about vaccinating 7 billion people, he can barely suppress his glee as he calculates the money to be made – and that's just the beginning.

Gates has sheltered himself personally by not directly identifying with a specific vaccine company, but rather investing through his Foundation. He uses the Foundation to support organizations that advance his objectives such as GAVI, the vaccine alliance and the World Health Organization. These organizations are constantly pushing for new vaccines and more vaccines which keeps the vaccine industry ever-expanding and highly profitable.

While the money is what motivates a lot of people, including Gates, it gets much deeper and darker, because Gates is a eugenicist. His family is very much involved in the globalist movement and Planned Parenthood, one of the most evil organizations on earth. Gates and his kind want the population of the world to go down – way down. They are using the medical system and pharmekeia to achieve their objectives.

The English word “pharmaceutical” derives from the Greek “pharmekeia”, which refers to the employment of drugs for any purpose – “sorcery, magic, enchantment.” It is important to understand that the “drugs” being pushed by pharmaceutical companies are not much different than the “potions” used by sorcerers and witches. While the modern medical system likes to distance itself from such connections, the Rod of Asclepius reminds us of the connection.

According to the Mayo Clinic, 7 out of 10 Americans take prescription medication – that’s 70 percent of the population! I find that to be shocking and hope that it is too high, but as I look around I can’t help think that most people are under a spell.

It is incredible that Asceplius is connected with the serpent and it was the “nachash” (serpent) that deceived the woman through enchantment in the Garden. It is no surprise that the servants of Asclepius are doing the same thing to mankind today.

While America has been in a “war against drugs” for decades, that has only been against those deemed “illegal drugs.” At the same time, a large portion of Americans have become addicted to legal drugs, making vast fortunes for drug companies.

I find it interesting that now one of the promises that politicians make is that they will insure that Americans will be assured affordable prescription drugs. It is critical that Americans continue to get their drugs. While America continues to decline in health at a dramatic pace, no one steps back and questions the solution being promoted by the modern medical system, and its drugs.

No one seems to be saying “Hey, these guys are making a fortune off of us and we aren’t getting healthy. In fact, we’re getting sicker.” Instead, they put their blind faith and trust in the doctors when they get sick – because of fear.

Much of America is currently in a state of fear over an “invisible enemy” which is a complete PSYOP to place them in fear. As a result, they are placing their blind faith in the doctors and the tyrants who claim to be working toward a “solution”. Well, they are working toward a solution alright, but it is not the one that many are expecting.

Vaccines are not safe and they are extremely dangerous on many different levels. They literally contain a witch’s brew of ingredients that pollute your body and now they will literally change your DNA.

This goes beyond a physical issue and transcends into the spiritual, because the new messenger RNA vaccines are aimed at the source code that distinguishes us as being “made in the image of Elohim” – our DNA.

I sincerely believe that the vaccine issue has now become a spiritual litmus test. Only those with spiritual eyes will recognize the significance.

Of course, some will reject a forced vaccine because it violates their rights, while others actually understand the physical dangers. Ultimately though, this is a very important spiritual issue and sadly, many Christians don’t get it.

I was initially disturbed when Christian “leaders” succumbed to lockdowns. They could have turned the lockdowns on their heads in one day if they actually refused to comply, but they barely made a peep. They allowed the tyrants to trample on their freedom of religion and the right to peaceably assemble in the span of one Sunday.

Now when you drive by most churches all you see is a sign saying “Join us online” with some pithy statement or a Scripture verse. What a failure of a religion that is supposed to operate in faith, healing and miracles. This staged pandemic has surely exposed much of mainstream Christianity for what it really is - an entertainment and social organization with no power.

Thank goodness people can still tune in and get entertained over the internet without ever leaving their homes or even getting out of bed. This has taken the convenience of the drive-thru church to a whole new level. The Christian church has adapted well to the Beast System.

Recently, a letter was signed and published by 2,700 Christian leaders entitled "A Christian Statement on Science for Pandemic Times." As expected, they took quotes from the Scriptures wildly out of context in order to encourage all Christians to submit to the Asclepius system and follow the advice of scientists and physicians by wearing masks and taking the vaccine.

These sell-outs are preparing people to bow down to the image of the beast. Of course, this did not surprise me at all based upon past performance.

In fact, I recently heard a false prophetess state that "Yeshua-Jesus" said it was o.k. to take a vaccine that contained aborted fetal tissue, because "there's still life in those cells that can be used for good."

I almost fell out of my chair when I heard her. Did you realize that they are now harvesting heart tissue from live babies for these vaccines and their experiments? They actually cut out the baby's beating hearts while they are still alive because they need the living tissue.

This is evil of the highest order and it made me realize just how deceived people really are – even those who claim to speak for and follow Elohim. I was already suspicious when I heard her use "Yeshua-Jesus" and I have to be honest that I always find that usage highly disturbing.

Which is it? Yeshua or Jesus? Because the Messiah did not have two names, nor did He have a combined Hebrew and Greek name. It is confusing and it involves mixing. I find this practice completely contrary to the Torah which prohibits mixing.

People just have to get used to the fact that the Messiah was a Hebrew with a Hebrew Name. There is no value or truth involved in calling Him “Yeshua-Jesus.”

If that offends you then I suggest you unsubscribe. I find it interesting to see people unsubscribe after being offended. When they don't like what they hear, even when it is undeniable truth, they unsubscribe or give something a thumbs down, as if that changes anything.

I often imagine how Yahushua would fair in this world of social media rankings. I suspect He would have a lot of thumbs down. In fact, He was very abrasive and confrontational so He probably would have been taken down from most sites for violating their community rules.

He showed great restraint when He allowed Himself to be offered up like Isaac. That went against His nature to live and unabashedly proclaim the truth. He will not be demonstrating that type of restraint when He returns. His wrath will be incredible to the point where He is described as being drenched in blood. (Revelation 19:11-21) That does not fit most Christian's image of Jesus.

In fact, most people completely missed Him the first time that He came because He did not fit their pre-conceived idea that He would come as a conquering King who would free them from Roman oppression. Many gave Him a thumbs down and a dislike because He offended their paradigm.

Many continue to misunderstand Yahushua to this day. Sadly, false teachers and prophets have left the sheep completely unprepared for His return. Messiah Yahushua is not some “mealy-mouthed” wimpy Greek hybrid Christ who just loves and accepts everyone no matter what they say or do.

He is a King coming to render judgment on behalf of His Father and only those who are sealed will be protected from His wrath.

“¹ After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living Elohim. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our Elohim on their foreheads.’” Revelation 7:1-3

The word used for the seal of Elohim is “sphragis” in the Greek. It is a seal or a mark – like an impression made with a King’s signet ring. This would be the same as the former “taw” placed on the foreheads of those in Jerusalem who sighed and cried “over all the abominations” that were done within it. (Ezekiel 9:3-4) I want that seal!

That seal stands in stark contrast to a mark that many will receive. The mark of the beast is “charagma” in the Greek. It refers to an imprinted mark, and there are plans to make a person’s ability to buy and sell and participate in the Babylonian system contingent upon receiving that mark, linked to a vaccine. A mark would be issued as proof of the vaccine and a part of that mark would include biometric and economic data.

The new vaccine is designed to introduce the mark of the beast system and it will literally alter their DNA. So any individual who advocates this new vaccine as a part of the coming “reset” is complicit – whether they are fully cognizant of the plan or simply ignorant and well-meaning.

This demonstrates the fact that people can be sincere in their beliefs while being sincerely wrong. We see this with the recent letter from Christian leaders, but it is also an epidemic in much of the Christian religion.

There are many sincere people who call themselves Christians. These sincere people go to church, sing praises, read their Bibles, pray and some even tithe, despite the fact they are taught that they are not “under the law”. The problem is that their sincerity does not necessarily make them right, and those actions do not necessarily place them in a Covenant relationship with Elohim.

Nothing epitomizes this truth better than what the Messiah stated in Matthew 7. “²¹ Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but the one who does the will of My Father who is in heaven. ²² On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ ²³ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.” Matthew 7:21-23

I quote this a lot because it always bothered me from the time I was a young kid reading this verse and going to church. It actually scared me because I didn’t see how I could be known by the Messiah when I wasn’t even operating in the gifts like these “many” people were.

Apparently, these people were sincere in their beliefs and their actions. They even call Yahushua “Lord” but regardless, He tells them to depart from His presence because He doesn’t know them. He does not have a relationship with them even though they think they have a relationship with Him.

There is a similar warning in Luke. Yahushua instructed His disciples as follows: "²⁴ Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able. ²⁵ When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open for us,' and He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from,' ²⁶ then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.' ²⁷ But He will say, 'I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.' ²⁸ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom of Elohim, and yourselves thrust out. ²⁹ They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of Elohim. ³⁰ And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last." Luke 13:24-30

So here again, many sincere people will desire and try to get into the Kingdom, but the Master will not let them in. But I thought all you had to do was raise your hand, say a prayer or go to the altar to get saved? These people knew Him. They ate with Him, they drank with Him. They are calling Him Lord, but He says He doesn't know them.

We read a similar fate for the 5 foolish virgins who were not prepared for the Master's arrival. "¹¹ Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' ¹² But He answered and said, 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'" Matthew 25:11-12

Once again, they were sincere in their desire to go to the Wedding Feast. They were calling Him Lord, but He says He does not know them.

The overwhelming fact is that there are going to be a lot of sincerely shocked individuals who find themselves shut out of the Kingdom for one reason – The Master does not know them.

The key is ultimately easy to understand, but it runs completely contrary to common Christian teaching. You see knowing Yahushua involves being in a relationship with Him. That relationship is defined by a covenant and at the heart of that Covenant are terms described as the Torah.

In order to be in a relationship with Elohim and dwell with Him in His Hosue, we need to obey His rules. They are not a mystery and clearly set forth in the Scriptures.

So while these people may have said a prayer or gone to the altar, they failed to do the will of the Father. They were living the way they thought was right, but they were actually described as “lawless” and “workers of iniquity.”

Both of these terms specifically refer to people who do not obey the Torah – the Commandments and instructions of Elohim. The sincere foolish virgins didn’t have any light, because the Torah is defined as light. This is very clear principle in the Scriptures.

“For the Commandment is a lamp, and the Torah a light.”

Proverbs 6:23

There are currently many sincere Christians who think they are bearing fruit, but they are not bearing fruit for the Kingdom. They may be doing what they have been taught or what they think they should be doing, but they will be cast out like the unprofitable servant in Matthew 25:30.

They were probably told that they are saved by grace alone, and there is nothing else they need to do – they are eternally secure by saying a prayer. They may have been taught that they cannot obey Elohim, and it's impossible to keep the law. There are countless lies being spread around to try to get people to disobey and live lawless lives – despite the numerous warnings that Messiah provided.

He specifically stated: “⁴⁶ But why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do the things which I say? ⁴⁷ Whoever comes to Me, and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you whom he is like: ⁴⁸ He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, and could not shake it, for it was founded on the rock. ⁴⁹ But he who heard and did nothing is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently; and immediately it fell. And the ruin of that house was great.” Luke 6:46-49

His words and sayings were very clear. His parables are clear. He always taught the Torah. His big issue with the Scribes and Pharisees is that they had added to and taken away from Torah. They had hidden the light yoke of the Torah and placed heavy burdens on men. A yoke guides and directs and that is what the Torah does. It keeps us on the straight path – the narrow way to life. (Matthew 11:28-30)

Yahushua was clarifying and distinguishing between the light and easy Torah of Elohim as opposed to the burdensome law of the Scribes and Pharisees. He definitely was not abolishing the Torah. He was the Torah in the flesh.

So don't be fooled by false Christian teachers and certainly don't be involved in misleading someone else. Just do what He says because He specifically stated:

“¹⁴ You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. ¹⁶ Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven. ¹⁷ Do not think that I came to destroy the Torah or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. ¹⁸ For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the Torah till all is fulfilled. ¹⁹ Whoever therefore loosens one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:14-20

There are a lot of sincere Christians stating that we cannot obey the Torah and that we should not obey the Torah. That’s a lie.

There are a lot of sincere Messianic Jews teaching that only Jews need to follow Torah. That’s a lie

There are a lot of sincere Hebrew Roots people teaching that obedience is not a salvation issue. That’s a lie.

Yahushua specifically stated that He did not come to abolish the Torah and He connected living the Torah with shining as light. He did not say that if you break the Commandments and teach people to break them you will be least. That is the result of a poor translation.

Those who do not obey are the “lawless” and the “workers of iniquity”. They don’t get into the Kingdom. He made that abundantly clear.

Yahushua was teaching that if you try to relax a Commandment so that you just get by with doing the least, then you will be least. On the other hand, if you are zealous for the Torah you will be great in the Kingdom. The way we obey Him determines our position in the Kingdom.

Sadly, many sincere Christians have been deceived into living and promoting lawlessness. They have unwittingly become “workers of iniquity” while thinking they are doing good. The enemy of mankind has actually used the modern Christian religion to largely promote lawlessness, using the same lie that deceived the woman and the man in the Garden.

The serpent wants to put people under a spell and make them think that they do not have to obey the Commandments. If he can get you to disobey, then that places you outside the Covenant, out of the Kingdom and outside of a relationship with the Messiah. This is the same tactic used by Balaam. (Revelation 2:14) He doesn't have to kill you, just get you to disobey and fall under the curse.

Yahushua repeatedly warned people not to be lawless. He repeatedly told them that He doesn't know those who are lawless. While you might think you have a relationship with the Messiah, I can tell you for sure that He doesn't know you if you reject His Torah.

The Torah is at the heart of the Covenant He renewed at the Last Supper (Passover) as prophesied by Jeremiah. “But this is the Covenant that I will make with the House of Yisrael after those days, says YHWH: I will put My Torah in their minds, and write it on their hearts; and I will be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.” Jeremiah 31:33

The Covenant that the Messiah renewed was with Yisrael, not the Christian Church. That is why He had twelve disciples, representing all of Yisrael. Yisrael represents those who are the people of Elohim in His Covenant. When you are obeying the Torah, you are in the Covenant, you are one of His people and He knows you.

Torah obedience is the sign of the Covenant relationship. “¹⁹ I am YHWH your Elohim: Walk in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them; ²⁰ hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am YHWH your Elohim.” Exodus 20:19-20

When you are lawless, that means you are not obeying the Torah. You are not in the Covenant and you are not one of His people and He therefore does not know you, because you are not in a relationship with Him.

He defines the relationship, not you. Many Christians think that they can define the relationship by how they feel or what they believe. That's all emotionalism. The Covenant is not defined by emotion, it is defined by the Judge who wrote the terms on stone and now wants to write them on our hearts and place them in our minds. That's the “New Covenant” that Christians profess, but don't follow.

While the shed blood of Yahushua cleanses us, provides forgiveness and gets us back into the Covenant, we need to do our part to remain in the Covenant Assembly. That is the overwhelming lesson of the Scriptures.

Obedience is righteousness and the obedient receive the blessings. Disobedience is wickedness and the disobedient get the curses.

So we are in an age of great deception and many people are being deceived. It is our job to shine the Light of the Messiah, which we do when we follow His Torah.

We are approaching a Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego moment when people may be compelled to take the mark and worship the image. (See Daniel 3) Remember that they had a choice. They were told to bow down and worship the image or be killed. They refused, but they were not killed. The Messenger of YHWH went into the fire with them and saved them. The Messenger of YHWH is prepared to deliver you from the fiery furnace as well.

YHWH has prepared a fiery fate for the Beast and the False prophet which they will not escape. (Revelation 19:20)

That is why we do not need to fear what lies ahead. In fact, we should be excited because we know our King is coming and we know what He is going to do.

That does not mean there will not be persecution and Tribulation. There will. But we are also entering a time of miracles and great power and our job is to give our testimony and place our trust in Him.

There was a popular movement many years ago referred to as WWJD, when people would ask. What would Jesus do? The implication was that we should do everything the way Jesus did or would do. Now if they only got the Name right that would be wonderful. I think asking "What would Yahusha do?" is a powerful thing.

We could start off by asking: Would Yahushua honor the Seventh day Sabbath? Yes. Would Yahushua eat kosher food? Yes. Would Yahushua observe the Appointed Times? Yes. Would Yahushua wear tzitzit? Yes. We could go on and on, but the ultimate question is: Would Yahushua follow the Torah? Of course, yes – perfectly. He obeyed the Torah and instructed us to follow Him as He demonstrated how to live.

So why do Christians reject the Torah? Why do they resist His teachings and live sincere lives of lawlessness? Is it because something they read in a letter from Paul? So are they following a man named Paul rather than Messiah Yahushua? Are they listening to their Pastor? If so, they need to understand that Paul or their Pastor won't be standing there when they stand before the King. You need to obey the Commandments of the King to be known by the King.

Now what if we applied the question "What would Yahushua do?" to our current circumstances. We then could ask whether Yahushua would wear a mask? Of course not. He would be looking at people and teaching them face to face.

Would Yahushua sit in his house and self-quarantine if he wasn't sick. Of course not. The Torah provides that only the sick must quarantine.

Would Yahushua take a vaccine? Of course not, because the Torah states that the life is in the blood and it forbids mixing and even eating the blood of another being.

Would Yahushua be social distancing? Of course not. He would be laying hands on the sick and healing people.

There is an interesting story of healing at the Pool of Bethesda and it helps if you understand the back story.

First, the story. "² Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bethesda, having five porches. ³ In these lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. ⁴ For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had. ⁵ Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. ⁶ When Yahushua saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, He said to him, 'Do you want to be made well?' ⁷ The sick man answered Him, 'Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me. ⁸ Yahushua said to him, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk.'⁹ And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked." John 5:2-9

Many do not realize that this was the location of the Temple of Asclepius in Jerusalem. It was quite common for Temples of Asclepius to be located near healing waters. We see this in Pergamum as well. I take some of my tour groups to this location and you can actually see the remains of an Asclepion right next to the Pools.

So the people waiting for healing were not at the Temple of YHWH to the south. They were waiting at the Temple of a pagan god to receive their healing.

It is interesting that Yahushua went there and ignored the water as the source of healing. He didn't try to help the man get into the pool. He ignored the source of healing provided at the Asclepion, and He did not mix with it. Yahushua simply healed him and told him to get out of there.

These pagan gods and goddesses are evil forces. They derive from the fallen angels and they didn't just disappear after the flood. They have morphed and redesigned their cult over the centuries. Only now, the connection with Asclepius is right in our faces. You can see the symbol of Asclepius on hospitals, ambulances and doctors offices. It is important that we not mix with this system and look to it for our healing.

Here again, there are likely many sincere doctors who truly desire to heal their patients, but their sincerity does not make their methods right. When they prescribe drugs and vaccines that run contrary to the healing prescribed by Elohim, they are operating in error.

So we see that much of modern medicine represents the same ancient god with a modern twist. The hospitals are the same temples, polished and modified to integrate into the Babylonian construct.

We have Christians, Jews, Muslims and everyone else in society flocking to this model for healing, like the man at The Pool of Bethesda, instead of going to the House of YHWH. Oh sure, they might pray, but that usually occurs after they get diagnosed by a physician.

We currently see the priests and prophets of Asclepius dictating how the world will respond to a virus. America, supposedly “one nation under God”, has truly demonstrated the god that it has submitted to. America has chosen Asclepius and has sought out the priests of Asclepius for their healing. There is really no doubt where this will all lead.

The surgical mask was once the garb limited to the priests of Asclepius, now it is being worn by all of his disciples. As I stated, there is a powerful spiritual aspect to what we currently see happening in the world and it is all just a warm up for what is to come.

Ultimately it will be more than just wearing a piece of cloth on your face, it will involve a covenant with the Beast and a permanent “mark” on your body.

The rise of Asclepius is just one tentacle of the Beast System that will come through the New World Order and the coming reset. While Asclepius focuses on health, there is much more involved in this new system of control.

The World Economic Forum, which works in close collaboration with the Gates Foundation, has outlined the plan for the reset. They want to control your body and they also want to control people through food. You can plainly read this on their website where it proclaims “Reset the Table: Meeting the Moment to Transform the U.S. Food System.”

The planet operates in cycles and we are currently headed into a grand solar minimum with the associated climate change that we witness all around us. Traditionally, there are food shortages associated with this period and we can see major food disruptions looming on the horizon. That may be why the elite selected this time to perpetrate the controls on the planet.

As we speak, the food system in America is being dismantled and destroyed. Most people rely on Babylon for their daily bread instead of praying to YHWH for their daily bread as Yahushua instructed.

The sad fact is that the vast majority of people have been herded like cattle and indoctrinated into Babylonian enslavement through public education.

Once they have been properly conditioned through graduating from high school, they are then ready to enter a life of debt to get their further Babylonian education, then look for a job from Babylon, so that they can earn Babylonian currency in order to purchase products and food from Babylon and, of course, pay taxes to Babylon.

This is the brainwashing that Babylon has instilled upon most of the masses and that is where we are at. When Babylon says wear a mask, people will wear a mask. When Babylon says stay home, people will stay home and hope that Babylon gives them some money before they lose everything they spent their lives acquiring. When Babylon says get a vaccine and take a mark, I suspect most people will comply to that they can remain in Babylon.

This is not far from the story of Joseph when people sold everything, including themselves, for food. When people get hungry, they will do just about anything

So the question is: Can you exist without Babylon and are you prepared to leave Babylon?

I hope that the mask of Asclepius was a wake-up call for many and I hope people have used the time wisely to prepare for what lies ahead.

My prayer is that through this process, many will be shaken from their slumber. They need to wake up from the Babylonian spell they are under and see what time it is on the Creator's calendar.

May they turn to Yahushua and the Torah so that they will be known by Him and hear those wonderful words of invitation into the Kingdom: "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your Master." Matthew 25:23
