

Are you a Lemming or a Lamb?

Today is Day 15 of Month 2 on the Creator's Calendar. Yesterday was Pesach Sheni, second Passover, as we discussed in last week's newsletter.

Interestingly, in the past, those who were not able to join the regular Passover could still observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because the High Priest was the one to offer the first (resheet) barley. So even if you were unclean and unprepared to offer the pesach (sacrifice) and participate in the Passover meal, you could still rest and refrain from leaven away from the Temple or others if you were ceremonially unclean. So there is no provision to follow the Second Passover with a Second Unleavened Bread (Hag ha'matzah) celebration.

Of course, this makes for some very interesting speculation concerning future prophetic fulfillment of the Second Passover. This year, it occurred on Day 29 of the Omer count and today is Day 30 of the Omer count. The reason I bring this up is because many fail to remember that Yahushua was still on Earth after the resurrection for 40 days according to the Book of Acts.

"¹ The former account I made, O Theophilus, of all that Yahushua began both to do and teach, ² until the day in which He was taken up, after He through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen, ³ to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of Elohim."

While Christians celebrate the resurrection on Easter Sunday, we can discern from the Scriptures that Yahushua rose from the dead on the Sabbath – Day 17 of Month 1. That was the first Sabbath in the Omer count and Day 2 in the count.

The day after the resurrection was the first Day of the week (Sunday). It was Day 3 of the Omer count when Mary went to the tomb early while it was still dark and found it to be empty. She had an encounter with two Angels and Yahushua, which harkens us back to the encounter with Abram right around Passover when he was promised a son. (Genesis 18:1-14)

Yahushua later appeared to the disciples that evening. “¹⁹ Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Yahudim, Yahushua came and stood in the midst, and said to them, “Peace be with you.”²⁰ When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Master.²¹ So Yahushua said to them again, Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.²² And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, Receive the Set Apart Spirit.²³ If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.” John 20:19-23

Many look to Pentecost (Shavuot) as the first outpouring, but it is here that Yahushua imparted the Set Apart Spirit upon them just as Elohim breathed His Spirit into Adam at creation. (Genesis 2:7) This was a powerful event and Yahushua, in His renewed body was imparting the Ruach to His disciples.

This was the beginning of many encounters that occurred over the span of 40 days. One encounter occurred on the Sea of Galilee which is one of my favorite places to visit, because of the powerful message built into it. I produced a brief YouTube teaching on The Mystery of the 153 Fish that you might find interesting.

The text of Acts records that Yahushua was meeting with His disciples and teaching them after His resurrection. You cannot help but wonder if Yahushua attended a Pesach Sheni and taught about His fulfillment of the Appointed Time.

If we count 40 days we realized that He ascended on Omer Day 41. Since we are only on Day 30 we realize that Yahushua was still here on Earth after the resurrection at the same time that we are counting. So those of us who follow the Messiah should be excited about this time, and we should be anticipating counting to Day 41 commemorating the ascension event that we read about in Acts.

“⁴ And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, which, He said, you have heard from Me; ⁵ for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now. ⁶ Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, Master, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Yisrael? ⁷ And He said to them, It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. ⁸ But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. ⁹ Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. ¹⁰ And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, ¹¹ who also said, Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Yahushua, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven. ¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey.” Acts 1:4-12

When I take my tour groups to Israel around Passover I like to recount Yahushua's actions preceding the crucifixion. He was staying in Bethany and going to Jerusalem during the day, passing by Bethpage and returning to Bethany at night. The Mount of Olives encompasses that entire area (Mark 11:1; Luke 19:29) and He made a point not to stay in Jerusalem. He was sending a message and I find that the actions of Yahushua are just as powerful as His words.

Bethany is "Beit-ania" in Hebrew and it means: "house" (beit) of "affliction" (ana). It is about 2 miles outside of Jerusalem (John 11:18) on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives. Yahushua stayed in the House of Simon Leper in Bethany and this is where He was anointed before His crucifixion. Also, do not forget that Bethany is where Yahushua raised Lazarus from the dead. (John 11 and 12:1)

So it was a very significant place. That is why it is important to understand geography, because it helps us to understand the Scriptures. This sheds even more light on the ascension when we read Luke's account. "⁵⁰ And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. ⁵¹ Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. ⁵² And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³ and were continually in the Temple praising and blessing Elohim. Amen." Luke 24:50-53

As stated, that event occurred on Day 41 of the Omer count, which will be May 20, 2020 on the Gregorian calendar this year. So mark that day and celebrate with the same fervor that you do the resurrection, because that was the day that Yahushua went up in the clouds "to prepare a place for His Bride" (John 14:2-3) Yahushua will return in the clouds the same way that He ascended.

It is no coincidence that He took them "as far as Bethany". He was sending a message and I recommend that you study that a little deeper. Understanding this aspect of the Scriptures provides important lessons that we can learn. We should also reflect on the time when Yahushua was on this earth, walking, eating and teaching in His resurrected body as we count the Omer.

Remember that Yahushua was born in Bethlehem, the same city where King David was born. He then went to Egypt for safety and protection, as did His predecessors. He then came out of Egypt and lived in the Northern territory most of His life – the Land belonging to the lost Tribes of Yisrael. He stated that He came for the lost sheep of Yisrael. (Matthew 15:24) What Christians need to realize is that they are likely those lost sheep. Yahushua did not come to start a church, that is the fiction created by Rome.

Yahushua began His ministry by spending 40 days in the wilderness, representing the 40 days that Moses spent on the Mountain mediating the Covenant with Yisrael. He later renewed the broken Covenant at Passover (the Last Supper) and as the Lamb of Elohim, He shed His blood for His lost sheep on Passover Day. Three days later He rose on the Sabbath and then spent 40 days in a resurrected body before He was taken up into the clouds.

Those final forty days occurred between the barley and the wheat harvest, which is the context of the Book of Ruth. As we get closer to Shavuot, I hope to extrapolate on that more.

The context of Ruth was “famine”. Elimelech and Naomi were from Bethlehem, but they left the Land because there was famine. Famine was always an indicator that there was a problem between YHWH and His people. It meant that they were under a curse.

Instead of staying in the Promised Land and repenting, they went to the Land of Moab with their two sons. All the males ended up dying.

It wasn't a good plan. You cannot outrun the judgment of YHWH. They thought they could "beat the system" so to speak.

If they had rehearsed the lesson of Passover, they would have understood that YHWH protects His people and after a little "wake up call" (the first 3 plagues) He will separate His people and He will not judge the righteous with the unrighteous.

Remember the "negotiation" that took place between Abram and Elohim, at the time of the Passover.

"¹⁶ Then the men rose from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on the way. ¹⁷ And YHWH said, Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing, ¹⁸ since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? ¹⁹ For I have known him, in order that he may command his children and his household after him, that they keep the way of YHWH, to do righteousness and justice, that YHWH may bring to Abraham what He has spoken to him. ²⁰ And YHWH said, Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave, ²¹ I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me; and if not, I will know. ²² Then the men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before YHWH. ²³ And Abraham came near and said, Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴ Suppose there were fifty righteous within the city; would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it? ²⁵ Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked; far be it from You! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? ²⁶ So YHWH said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. ²⁷ Then Abraham answered and said, Indeed now, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to Adonai: ²⁸ Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous; would You destroy all of the city for lack of five? So He said, If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it. ²⁹ And he spoke to Him yet again and said, Suppose there should be forty found there? So He said, I will not do it for the sake of forty. ³⁰ Then he said, Let not Adonai be angry, and I will speak: Suppose thirty should be found there? So He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there. ³¹ And he said, Indeed now, I have taken it upon myself to speak to Adonai: Suppose twenty should be found there? So He said, I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty. ³² Then he said, Let not Adonai be angry, and I will speak but once more: Suppose ten should be found there? And He said, I will not destroy it for the sake of ten. ³³ So YHWH went His way as soon as He had finished speaking with Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.”

Genesis 18:16-32

So we see the countdown from 50 to 10. That is very significant as the 10 Tribes of Yisrael, currently scattered around the world, are starting to learn their identity and “come out of Babylon” during this 50 day count to Shavuot.

It is clear that YHWH will not judge the righteous, but the problem is that most people do not understand righteousness. This is an incredible time to be alive and have our eyes wide open to the Scriptures and the incredible fulfillment of Covenant promises provided by Yahushua.

Yahushua renewed the Covenant between YHWH and Yisrael as prophesied in Jeremiah 31:31-34. He “confirmed” (made great) the Covenant as described in Daniel 9:27. Sadly, most of the world does not know that the One mentioned in Daniel 9:27 is in fact Yahushua. Many incorrectly believe it is the anti-christ confirming a covenant. So they are applying prophecies regarding the Messiah to the anti-christ. This is a critical eschatological error. Indeed Christianity has done an incredible job of hiding the Torah-observant and teaching Messiah named Yahushua behind the veil of a lawless Christ named Jesus.

Now that may be shocking to most Christians to think that they could be deceived in such a fashion, but this has been going on since the beginning. How many of you think that Eve ate an apple while speaking to a snake in a tree? That is an illusion that is probably imbedded in the minds of most people and it is absolutely wrong.

The Scriptures speak of the “nachash”, which has been translated as serpent, but actually refers to a powerful and deceptive angelic being, likely with wings and appendages – a reptilian dragon.

Remember that it was only after the curses were pronounced and the judgments rendered that we read: “On your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.” (Genesis 3:14) That was the end result of the punishment. Prior to that time the enemy likely was a winged being. That is why Satan is described as “the dragon, that serpent of old.” (Revelation 20:2) Now since Satan has had his “wings clipped” he must disguise himself as an angel of light. (1 Corinthians 11:14)

So the deception continues and mankind is constantly being distracted and misinformed, the goal being to point them away from the Creator, the Covenant and the true Messiah.

We have exposed the fact that the minions of the kingdom of darkness deceive the masses through religions, now we are seeing the powers of darkness attempt to enslave the planet under the guise of a pandemic.

This entire ordeal is so obviously a deception and new information continues to come to light on a daily basis. In fact, I recently read an article about the business failures and job losses “caused by the coronavirus pandemic” and it reminded me of how the deception is being coordinated and perpetuated through the media.

The coronavirus itself has likely not caused one job loss. To the contrary, the governments have caused this economic carnage due to their poor judgment and tyrannical lockdown measures. The state and local governments, not a virus, are responsible for at least 33 million jobs lost in less than 2 months in the United States.

As politicians continue to protract the lockdown drama and as the mainstream media continues to pump out their propaganda, many people are simply getting worn down trying to figure out what is going on. Some of the few remaining voices speaking truth on social media are being censored and removed from YouTube, Facebook and Twitter. Soon there will be little to no dissent remaining and the mainstream media will completely control the pandemic narrative.

As we witness the planned destruction and dismantling of the American economy and the world economy, I understand that people’s heads are spinning, but it is critical to understand that this plan has been in the works for quite some time.

It was planned by the Rockefeller Foundation in 2010. Incredibly, the coronavirus relief legislation that was passed in March was actually written and presented in January of 2019 – a year before this pandemic. Just look up H.R. 748 CARES Act. It was first introduced on January 24, 2019 and became Public Law No. 116-136 on March 27, 2020.

So the pandemic was planned and the response was prepared ahead of time. It was recently rehearsed at Event 201 in October 2019. The rehearsal was conducted by John’s Hopkins University and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, along with the World Economic Forum.

The rehearsal took place in New York City, the epicenter of the “pandemic” in the United States. Coincidence? Is it any coincidence that John’s Hopkins immediately became the source for all of the COVID-19 numbers and statistics and Bill Gates became the de facto pandemic guru and spokesperson?

It’s all laid out according to the Problem . . . Reaction . . . Solution methodology for achieving a desired result. Of course, this current pandemic lockdown scenario could not have happened without the full cooperation of world and state governments implementing the Rockefeller “Lock step” protocol.

Through this lockdown process the United States has officially become a country ruled by orders, not laws. What we now see are 50 different dictators and tyrants called Governors, completely bypassing the legislative process by issuing Executive Orders instead of passing laws. They are imprisoning people in their homes and deciding who can leave and who cannot, who can work and who cannot, who is “essential” and who is expendable, who can live and who can die.

And who exactly is “essential” in our society? Health care workers, first responders, fast food preparers and pizza delivery personnel to name a few. Because of their perceived importance, these people are permitted to work, while others deemed “non-essential” need to just stay home and wait for some government assistance until they are given permission to leave their confinement.

Now mind you, there is nothing wrong with the people who are staying home, watching their lives fall apart. They aren’t sick, they are ordered to stay home because there is an invisible enemy that might kill them if they leave. And if that’s not enough, we recently were told that there could be a “murder hornet” lurking in the bushes waiting to attack them if they do decide to step outside. You just cannot make this stuff up.

The worst part about all of this fear-based hysteria is the fact that the stay at home orders are directly violating the Constitution. Therefore, they are illegal. There is no “pandemic clause” or “emergency clause” that allows any government to disregard or negate the rights provided in the Constitution.

The problem is that the government has been getting away with disregarding the Constitution for so long that people don't even recognize tyranny when it slaps a muzzle (mask) on their face and puts them in prison (house arrest) without any due process

This will go down as one of the most egregious acts of coordinated tyranny in American history, and if it doesn't end soon, it will be the end of America as we know it.

I have already mentioned the complete disaster created by New York Governor Andrew Cuomo in my past mailings. In early March he held a news conference indicating that this coronavirus was similar to influenza. He was correct at that point.

Shortly thereafter, in a little over a week, he did a total 180 and literally went berserk with predictions of doom and gloom that simply did not come true. He decimated the New York economy and justified his actions because he was “saving lives.”

His COVID response has been a complete failure and his actions resulted in carnage in nursing homes in New York State. Now he has doubled down on his rhetoric and claiming that every life is “priceless”, thus justifying the continued closure and destruction of the New York economy.

I live in a county where 3 people have apparently died of coronavirus, although there were serious pre-existing illnesses so in reality there were actually none. Regardless, the citizens of this county are being forced to observe the same restrictions as the people in New York City. It simply makes no sense.

In any event, the absurdity of the Governor's argument doesn't even warrant a response. He was not elected or authorized to throw out the Constitution to do whatever he feels is necessary to save "even one life" as he stated when he took his original actions.

Here is the oath that he swore on January 1, 2019. "I do hereby pledge and declare that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the States of New York, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Governor of the great State of New York according to the best of my ability . . . so help me god".

Well, he definitely needs help, but not from some unnamed god. He needs help from YHWH Elohim. He has violated that oath and he is a liar. He has specifically violated the Constitution by his actions. He is a major player in the destruction of the United States and the implementation of the New World Order.

He already announced his zeal to test everyone in New York State and he is right on board with forced vaccinations. He is so concerned about saving lives that he gleefully passed new abortion laws allowing for the murder of babies after they are born. This is an evil guy and he is using New York State as a test case for the implementation of the New World Order in America.

Remember the school shooting incident in Newtown, Connecticut? Governor Cuomo immediately used that to pass very restrictive gun control laws in New York State, even though the event did not occur in New York State.

He just announced this past week that he will be tapping Bill and Melinda Gates to restructure the entire New York State education system. They already have a horrendous track record harming children's bodies with their vaccines. Now Governor Cuomo wants to give these people the minds of the children in New York State. The stage was set through the passage of the Common Core curriculum, a movement supported and advanced by Bill and Melinda Gates.

Governor Cuomo seems to have their eyes on a bigger prize than just governor, and who knows what other surprises we might see in the upcoming months. He is being promoted by the media as the real leader of the pandemic and by the way, did you forget the fact that we are in the midst of a Presidential election? With Joe Biden on a serious decline, what a perfect time to rig an election.

There is no evidence that any of these draconian tactics implemented by Governor Cuomo or the other Governors will work, although they will claim that the numbers are less than the predicted models and that will be their proof. That is a false argument and here is why – if the lockdowns reduced the number of Covid cases, there should also be a reduction of other virus and influenza cases. The problem is that there were no reductions in other areas so the lockdown measures were completely ineffective. That was the conclusion of a study I referenced in a previous mailing.

So something is clearly going on, but most people are completely oblivious to the deception that surrounds them. This all began with overwhelming fear supported and promoted by exaggerated and faulty models created by epidemiologist Neil Ferguson of the Imperial College London. Even when those models were proven to be woefully inaccurate, the narrative did not change and Governors are still toying with people's lives, delaying the return to normalcy. It is psychological terrorism as many people fear for the families, their futures and their very existence.

This manufactured crisis now relies on a constant propaganda machine pounding the masses with constant fear, along with the mantra “stay home, save lives, stop the spread.” Different countries have variations on the same theme. I found the United Kingdom mantra to be particularly interesting – “Stay home, Protect the NHS, Save Lives.”

Now for those unfamiliar with the NHS, it is the National Health Service – the doctors, nurses and healthcare workers in the UK. So people apparently are supposed to stay home so they can protect those people who are getting paid to help sick people. That doesn't even make any sense. That's their job, to be around sick people. That's why they are considered essential workers. That's what they get paid to do every flu season.

In any event, why would healthy people, who are statistically not going to get sick, stay home in order to protect healthcare workers. The entire campaign is overly dramatic and simply absurd.

On that note, the mass clapping celebrations for healthcare workers and the signs everywhere thanking them are equally bizarre. What exactly are we supposed to be thanking them for? After all, they are actually able to go to work in the jobs that they chose. They are being paid for those jobs that involve treating people. They go through flu season every year and we have never had a campaign to thank them in the past. Why now, when amazingly the hospitals are nowhere near capacity or overwhelmed as predicted?

In fact, 1.4 million healthcare jobs were lost last month, during an alleged pandemic, for lack of work. So I don't think we can classify all healthcare workers as overworked “heroes” on “the front lines” and I really don't see why the public needs to be thanking them. This is particular true when people are being prohibited from seeing their friends, family members and loved ones who are sick and dying. It is both cruel and sadistic and I think the medical system owes America an apology for how they are treating people in an already stressful and difficult time.

The advertisements, billboards, signs, posters and clapping sessions praising healthcare workers is a staged and contrived elevation of medical workers and the healthcare system. It seems to be conditioning people to accept a medical solution to this crisis.

I recently watched an absolutely bizarre video the other day involving the 7:00 pm clapping celebration that is being staged to "thank essential workers" at a hospital in New York City. The person shooting the video arrived early to an empty emergency entrance. Now mind you, this was at the alleged epicenter of a supposed pandemic and no one was there.

There was a large group of nurses and healthcare workers just hanging around looking at their phones in the upstairs level which was all windows, so the guy shooting the video could capture them all doing nothing on the video. Then as it got closer to 7:00 pm, empty ambulances started arriving and parking in front of the emergency room entrance to make it look busy. Finally, a firetruck arrived and turned on its lights and siren as all of the people waiting upstairs flooded out of the emergency room clapping. It was a ridiculous and disturbing thing to watch, because it was clearly designed to manipulate people.

Again, this was an orchestrated drama setting people up to worship healthcare professionals as heroes and look to the healthcare system for their physical salvation, all while hospitals around the country are actually at critically low capacity, to the point that healthcare workers are being furloughed.

Thankfully, doctors from around the world are speaking out and pushing back against the false pandemic narrative. Some politicians are pushing back as well.

I recently watched footage of Vittorio Sgarbi, Member of the Italian Chamber of Deputies, as he gave an impassioned and emotional speech before parliament vehemently reporting that 25,000 Italians did not die of coronavirus and, according to the Higher Institute of Health, 96.3% of those deaths were from other causes. He reported that the true data also showed that the impact of the coronavirus was no different than the influenza.

He proclaimed that the exaggerated numbers were lies and rhetoric used to terrorize Italians and impose a dictatorship. Now what no one is talking about is the fact that Italy implemented a new and untested flu vaccine in late 2019 that used dog DNA and included 4 strains of virus including H1N1. In fact, there is growing evidence pointing to the fact that people who received the flu vaccine are the ones hardest hit by COVID-19. We will see how that plays out.

Very interestingly, while Mr. Sgarbi boldly spoke the truth, without a mask, there were other members of the parliament with masks and gloves attempting to shout him down. They did not want to face the facts and admit the truth, they wanted the drama to continue and they wanted to perpetuate the lies.

Of course, that is not unique to Italy. I see it all around me. There are people who appear to be enjoying the drama. Wearing a mask seems to give them a sense of purpose and importance – even though it is not effective and probably causes more harm than good for reasons that I have already mentioned.

A March 24, 2006 study of N-95 masks published in the American Journal of Infection Control concluded:

“The N95 filtering face piece respirators may not provide the expected protection level against small virions. Some surgical masks may let a significant fraction of airborne viruses penetrate through their filters, providing very low protection against aerosolized infectious agents in the size range of 10 to 80 nm. It should be noted that the surgical masks are primarily designed to protect the environment from the wearer, whereas the respirators are supposed to protect the wearer from the environment.”

From what I can find, the CoV pathogen is 70 to 90 nm in size. Study upon study has shown that the masks being worn are ineffective. That is why scientists working with viruses in Level 3 and 4 biolabs wear pressurized protective suits – not surgical face masks.

Nevertheless, that has not stopped governments from mandating face coverings. I wouldn't mind a brief precautionary measure if it made sense, but I find what is currently happening very disturbing. Those who actually see the futility and resist are getting targeted, not only by the police, but from the general public who have been conditioned since 9/11 to report suspicious people – “If you see something say something.”

This has empowered a new breed of snitches who don't simply report non-compliant citizens, they take action themselves.

I saw a video of a teacher from New Jersey out walking her dog. Instead of minding her own business, she decided to start chastising two teenagers in the park. She was enraged because they were outside playing ball. She started by scolding them in a condescending tone “Get it through your thick heads – you are the reason we are in this situation. You are the problem – not the solution.” She went on to call them idiots and state “I’m just trying to save your ass and save your life . . . but die.” She then concluded with “I hope both of you get the coronavirus. I hope you both die a long painful death.”

Well there is someone who I would want teaching my children - not! It was really quite disturbing to watch. While she first appeared to care for the boys and wanted to save lives, through the totalitarian restrictions imposed by the Governor, the lecture quickly devolved into a rant. Her true colors came out in the end and ultimately it became evident that she was actually filled with anger and hate.

It was a perfect display of what I have been observing in people for decades – candy coated evil. This is the same hypocritical hate-filled self-righteous vitriol that we have seen over the years manifesting itself through politics – primarily from progressive liberal democrats.

Now don’t get me wrong, I am well beyond thinking there is going to be a political solution to this mess, but it seems like the political parties have been dividing on a spiritual level with the left aligning toward evil and the plans of the beast system.

Take for instance the trans-gender movement popularized and promoted by the left. It is a direct affront to Elohim and the foundation of His creation. It is a blurring of the sexes that were specifically created by YHWH. It promotes confusion and promotes conduct that the Scriptures describe as an abomination. They even use a corrupted rainbow as their symbol as they defiantly thumb their noses at the Creator.

This is just one example among many others. I already mentioned the abortion issue which is a huge liberal cause. So I am finding that those with no grounding in truth and the Scriptures generally place their faith in government to solve their problems. I’m quite certain I could guess the teacher's political affiliation and I am seeing that translate over to society in general.

The progressives easily accept the government intervention and oppression, because they have been conditioned to look to the government for solutions. That is why when Governors like Andrew Cuomo get on television with their condescending and patronizing tone, the sheep who have chosen the government to lead them simply follow his voice.

That is likely the result of the public education system that really does not teach children how to think independently. Instead, students are taught to memorize information that they later regurgitate on a test and then forget.

Most American children are not taught the principles of a free society and the real reason why the right to bear arms was second only to the rights to peaceably assemble, practice religion, free speech and free press. These are bedrock principles built into this country for a reason and those principles are being sorely tested and destroyed.

For instance, after every shooting in the US there is a cry for gun control. Again, it is usually from those on the left who would like to see only the government with guns. As I already stated, after the Newtown incident that happened in Connecticut, not New York, Governor Cuomo quickly pushed through "The SAFE Act" because that is the buzz word that they use to control people.

Remember that everything is supposedly for your safety. The government wants complete control so that they can keep you safe. Governor Cuomo specifically sought to ban military style weapons and reduce the sizes of magazines because, according to him, hunters don't need more than 5 bullets in a magazine.

So he shifted the entire Second Amendment argument to hunting. The Second Amendment was not to ensure the right of people to go hunting. The Second Amendment was established to ensure that the citizens could form a militia against the government.

Here is what the Second Amendment says: "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

So the point of the Second Amendment was not simply so people could go hunting or have a gun collection. It was so that they could have a militia, if needed, to insure they remained free. A militia, by its very definition is an army of citizens.

The point was that every citizen would be armed to prevent government overreach and tyranny. That has now become politically incorrect, but it is the absolute truth. Sadly, a person who promotes an armed militia opposed to the government is looked upon as a "domestic terrorist."

And that brings us back to Governor Cuomo. The man is either ignorant of the Constitution, which he pledged to support and defend, or he is purposefully trying to advance an agenda to weaken the populace and empower the government. Anyone with any degree of intelligence can discern the answer to that question.

This man is the very definition of a tyrant who the founders were trying to warn people against. Sadly, he is not the only tyrant who has infiltrated American politics. Progressives have failed to heed that warning and essentially welcome increased government intervention. They have taken over "higher education" and conditioned generations of Americans to become a bunch of lemmings.

Last week I posted a picture of a bunch sheep wearing masks and that likely represents those believers who have lost their way and are listening to a different shepherd. This week I am using lemmings in masks to represent those in society who have bought into the whole COVID-19 drama.

Lemmings are unclean animals. They are rodents with an awful reputation of exploding and committing group suicide by running off of cliffs. None of this is true, but it makes for a good analogy because that is exactly what we see people doing today.

You typically cannot have a rational argument with a progressive without them exploding into a rage. They usually do not want to talk rationally about history. Things usually get emotional and they often base their opinion on a bunch of “what if’s” and a lot of bad science and data. Of course, science has become the new religion of the progressive movement, so this ultimately becomes a spiritual issue.

You have heard it said that with great rights come great responsibility, well that is true. People who actually have spiritual understanding value religious freedoms and want to keep them. And if you want to keep those rights you sometimes need to take action to keep them.

Those individuals who fit the description of the mythical lemmings are willingly to give up those rights and are essentially jumping off the cliff into totalitarianism.

Now here I go, sounding like a conspiracy theorist, not trusting Big Brother government to keep me safe. In fact, last week I actually made a reference to the Nazi propaganda machine that used the same assurance of safety to advance their cause.

In the world of the lemmings, it is not acceptable to compare past tyranny to the present. That's not fair to actually bring up history, because lemmings don't believe the old adage "Those who do not learn history are doomed to repeat it."

So I must be a conspiracy theorist and the first thing that lemmings are taught is to avoid "conspiracy theories" and those who promote them. The lemmings are taught that people who believe conspiracy theories are paranoid and to be avoided.

If you are reading this and realize that you might be a lemming – there is still hope. While you may have drunk the Kool Aid you haven't gone over the cliff yet, but you need to have eyes to see and ears to hear. You need to step outside of your safe place and see what is really going on in the world.

The Scriptures describe an epic conspiracy that is not a theory, it is the reality that we live within. There is a spiritual battle being played out around us, in part, in the political arena. It is important to understand that "the weapons of our warfare are not carnal" and we are never going to get a righteous political solution until Yahushua establishes the Kingdom of Elohim "on Earth as it is in Heaven."

In the meantime, people need to wake up and discern the powers at work and see where this is all headed. The Book of Revelation provides a message given through John for the seven assemblies that he was overseeing in Asia minor. One of those assemblies was located in Laodicea.

They were known for their banking and their trade. They were a wealthy community - not unlike most Americans. The Laodicean believers were initially from the Yahudim (Jews) and were considered to be a sect of the Yahudim (Jewish) community, which was exempt from participating in the Imperial cult.

Ultimately, as the followers of Yahushua in Laodicea separated from the Pharisaic influenced Yahudim, and started adding Gentile converts, they lost that exemption. As a result, they fell under the persecution of Emperor Domitian, because of their continued refusal to participate in the Imperial cult. Remember that the Beast represents the governments described in Daniel as Babylon through Rome. (Daniel 7)

Rome was the Beast at the time that the Revelation of Yahushua was given and Domitian represented the Beast. He was notorious for declaring himself to be a god while still alive.

Interestingly, Domitian's patron deity was Minerva, the same goddess as the Greek Athena. This is the goddess that currently sits atop of the US Capital Building (known as the Statue of Freedom) and the one that greets visitors to the shores of America (known as the Statue of Liberty). So we see America has all of the earmarks of Rome and the continuation of the Beast – the Fourth Beast.

“The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all other kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, trample it and break it in pieces.” Daniel 7:23

In Laodicea, followers of Yahushua were ultimately prohibited from buying and selling because they would not worship the image of the Beast – the statue of the Emperor. Remember that markets were localized spaces and people often would be required to make an offering to the emperor before entering the market. Some compromised and participated in the Emperor worship so they could maintain their wealth and prosperity.

As a result, here is the message Yahushua had for them: “¹⁴ And to the messenger of the assembly of the Laodiceans write, These things says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of Elohim: ¹⁵ I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. ¹⁶ So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. ¹⁷ Because you say, I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing - and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked - ¹⁸ I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see. ¹⁹ As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore, be zealous and repent. ²⁰ Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me. ²¹ To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.” Revelation 3:14-21

So Yahushua was instructing them to open their eyes. Get their focus off of their comfortable lives that was making them compromise, resulting in them becoming lukewarm. Lukewarm water is not good for drinking or cooking – it is not satisfying or useful. Likewise, believers who are lukewarm are good for nothing.

Therefore, Yahushua says He will spit out the lukewarm. He told the Laodiceans to look to the Kingdom and their reign with him, not the Emperor and the Beast System that they were living in. It didn't matter if they could buy or sell in the beast System because despite the fact that they thought they were rich, they were wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. It was time for them to start operating in the currency of the Kingdom.

While we see that this type of persecution was localized at that time, the ultimate goal of that same Beast System is to control the entire world. So while we see applications of Revelation in the past, we can also see a future fulfillment occurring right before our eyes.

In the midst of all of this, it is important to be awake and alert as to what is going on. We cannot become lukewarm to maintain our worldly wealth and comforts. We cannot participate in the implementation of the Beast System. Those who have an understanding of history and the Scriptures therefore don't want the government in their business. As a general rule – the less government the better.

They don't want to be a lemming. They don't want to isolate in their homes, they want to go outside to work, fellowship and exercise. They don't want to social distance, they want to shake hands, give hugs and embrace their fellow man. They don't want to wear a useless mask, they want to breath fresh air and let people hear their voice and see the smile on their face.

Lemmings are the opposite. They are the new social vigilantes and the self-righteous snitches. Sorry to use another Nazi example but they were, after all, masters of propaganda and population control. They also infiltrated and assimilated into the US government through Operation Paperclip after World War II. As a result, it is safe to assume that there is significant influence in our government today.

Regardless, if you bring up any Nazi parallels, a lemming will immediately ignore you because they do not understand history and they have been conditioned to shut down, rather than face the clear facts.

An important tool in population control was the development of the Nazi Youth where children were used to spy on parents and neighbors and turn them in to the authorities for any social breach. This has actually been going on for decades in the public schools. I have seen it first-hand in my profession as teachers and social workers interrogate children regarding their parents and home life.

Anonymous hotlines are also used to turn in parents and start investigations.

All of the mechanisms for a full-fledged police state are already in place in America. All we needed was something like a staged pandemic to really set things in motion. Now these social distancing vigilantes are turning in their neighbors and fellow citizens. It is sheer insanity but it is happening all over the place. They have believed the narrative and are willing to align with the state and betray their fellow citizens.

Last week I saw police lined up on horses pushing peaceful protesting citizens in California and I recently saw a police officer face plant a young lady on a Walmart floor for apparently not wearing a mask. Now I understand there might be more to the story, but this is happening all over the country and the world.

Since the inception of the lockdown I have seen police beating and arresting helpless “non-compliant” citizens. Too bad they don’t have a Second Amendment, but that really doesn’t matter anymore because the tyrants have already significantly diminished those rights.

The mask wearing lemmings are simply ignorant, deluded and misinformed. Regardless, they carry on, acting like super heroes, thinking they are saving lives while they are simply running off the cliff to their destruction with the other lemmings.

The internet is currently filled with evidence of outrageous treatment of business owners desperate to open their business, being scorned, tormented and ridiculed for not observing lockdown and social distancing orders. They are accused of being greedy and selfish for simply wanting to do what is natural – pay their bills and put food on their tables.

We now live in a society where people who want to work are being fined and jailed. Liquor stores are deemed essential and Walmart Stores are open and full, while churches are closed and empty. The notion that shopping in a store is a greater right than exercising religion, peaceably assembling or exercising free speech is unthinkable. The idea that a state governor or mayor has the power to suspend religious observance based upon a perceived viral threat is not only outrageous, it will open the door for unlimited potential future violations. Pandora's box has now been opened.

The Scriptures state that "You shall know them by their fruits." (Matthew 7:16-20) We are supposed to discern a liar and a wolf in sheep's clothing through their fruits. The fruits of this entire affair are evil, perpetrated by lies and deception. They are playing with numbers and manipulating the facts.

When discussing how they would count COVID-19 deaths, Dr. Deborah Birx specifically stated "we have taken a very liberal approach to mortality". In other words, they are attributing deaths to COVID-19 whether or not it is actually proven or substantiated. This is exactly what the CDC has recommended and I have seen those documents. I have heard from doctors complaining that they are being pressured to add COVID-19 to death certificates and I have seen the evidence that this is actually occurring in America - just like in Italy and around the world.

Dr. Birx also specifically stated that anyone who dies with COVID-19 is being treated as a COVID death. Now this is nothing short of medical fraud. They are specifically targeting one virus and intentionally amplifying the numbers.

This would be the same as saying that anyone who dies while they have a cold will be listed as dying from the cold. So if they had stage 4 cancer and happened to have a cold when they died, the death would be attributed to the cold and not the cancer for statistical purposes. It's obviously absurd, but they are intentionally manipulating the data to justify their pandemic response.

Doctors are reporting that there are incredible financial incentives for hospitals to treat patients as COVID patients and to put them on ventilators. The really tragic part is that in many cases a ventilator is the wrong treatment and they could actually be killing patients.

Obviously, that will be counted as a COVID death and the hospital will make $39,000.00. According to many doctors, hospitals are actually killing people through their treatment and the sad reality is that the faster the people die, the more money hospitals can make. If this is truly happening, is it any wonder that bodies have piling up at certain hospitals?

There is an old saying that "Figures don't lie but liars sure can figure". Well we are seeing the liars misrepresent the true numbers. In fact, it is getting harder and harder to get to the raw data when you do an internet search.

When you try to get raw data the search engines will immediately inundate you with COVID articles including dramatic headlines pumping COVID death rates, but there is very little raw data and a lot of subterfuge going on.

As I said weeks ago, the real test of whether we are in a pandemic is whether we are experiencing above-average deaths directly associated with the cause of the pandemic. As I previously quoted, the average death rate is a little under 8,000 per day in America. That would amount to an average number of 56,000 people dying in an "average" week.

We are exiting the flu season so over the past several months we would expect to see above average numbers. If we are truly in a pandemic situation we would expect to see much higher than average deaths. So let's look at the actual numbers for the past couple of months according to usafacts.org, using CDC figures.

Week ending	Known deaths from all causes
02/01/2020	56,662
02/08/2020	57,240
02/15/2020	56,440
02/22/2020	56,153
02/29/2020	55,721
03/07/2020	55,268
03/14/2020	53,287
03/21/2020	53,053
03/28/2020	55,540
04/04/2020	59,246
04/11/2020	52,083

I hope that you can see that there is no pandemic going on. The supposed 79,000 COVID deaths in the United States are not new or additional deaths. We are not seeing an increase in actual deaths, just a redistribution of causation and a manipulation of data. The daily death counts are rigged to create the illusion of a pandemic.

This is not just medical fraud, it is a political and economic crime. As it turns out, most of the players in this drama are corrupt to the core. People are intentionally creating the illusion of a pandemic

Over the last several weeks, we have seen more and more information come out against certain vaccine practices and the corruption of the Pharmaceutical industry, along with government officials such as Dr. Fauci.

Dr. Fauci is the director of the National Institute for Allergies and Infectious Disease (NIAID). He has served under 6 presidents and he is the very definition of “the swamp” that President Trump was supposed to drain.

The NIAID has a 4.5 billion dollar annual budget and I mentioned last week about the millions of dollars that went to Wuhan to continue coronavirus research despite a Congressional moratorium. Fauci should be fired and a criminal investigation should be conducted. It all comes down to “follow the patents and follow the money.”

This is where it gets very interesting, because remember when everyone said that we wouldn't have a vaccine for 18 months to 2 years? Well, it looks like we have a “miracle” in the works as we continue to hear reports of a possible vaccine in the very near future.

In fact, a recent article in The Washington Post on May 6, 2020 highlighted a young woman who “spent her life preparing for this moment.” The article suggests that Kizzemekia Corbett may be the one to create the vaccine to end the pandemic, and it looks like she is being set up to be the hero. But wait, it gets better, because she just so happens to work for Dr. Fauci at the NIAID. What a coincidence!

Again, you must excuse me for my skepticism and my sarcasm but do they actually think that the masses are that gullible? The answer, of course, is a resounding yes.

It is likely that since this was an engineered virus, they already have a vaccine. They just cannot bring it out too soon, or that would really raise suspicions. I already mentioned the possible Fort Detrick involvement and in numerous interviews Dr. Judy Mikovits points directly to the Fort Detrick/Wuhan lab connection with Fauci at the heart of it. She states that there is no way that COVID-19 naturally evolved from SARS-1 in a decade, and the wet market hypothesis is simply a distraction. Of course, she is not the only one saying this.

Interestingly, Dr. Mikovits has recently undergone enormous character assassination across the internet after she went public with the Fauci corruption. All social media outlets have taken down her interviews as fast as they can be posted, and they have labelled her as “a discredited American ex-research scientist who is known for her anti-vaccination activism, promotion of conspiracy theories, and scientific misconduct.”

The fact that the powers that be are expending such energy to silence this individual only adds to the likelihood that she is speaking the truth. She has been included in an upcoming movie titled “Plandemic” which the mainstream media is working overtime to discredit. I saw the same tactics used to silence the movie entitled “Vaxxed.”

The fact is that the vaccine industry makes enormous profits with little to no proof that vaccines are effective, and they often even cause harm. Regardless, they have complete immunity for damage, so they have about the biggest racket going aside from the Federal Reserve which actually gets to print money out of thin air.

With so much money on the line, vaccine manufacturers will go to great lengths to silence any and all opposition. As the voices of opposition are being silenced, the lemmings are being conditioned to anxiously wait with baited breath for a vaccine “cure.”

Once that is announced, they will race with their sleeves rolled up, begging to get it injected into their bloodstream. Until then, they must stay home, stay 6 feet apart and wear their masks to protect themselves, and the other lemmings, from the “invisible enemy.”

Again, this has been a masterful stroke in population control and the stage is being set for what Bill Gate's refers to as "the Final Solution" – the vaccine. The lemmings will then stand in line, properly socially distanced of course, and await their turn to step off the cliff fulfilling their role in the depopulation agenda.

It's all part of the plan that has been expressed by Gates and others to vaccinate the world and then implement the mark using "Luciferase" quantum dot. That wasn't a typo folks. They are actually going to use the Luciferase enzyme for the mark of the beast. You literally cannot make this up!

Speaking of not making something up, remember the Microsoft cryptocurrency patent identified as 060606 (666) that I mentioned will go along with the vaccine and the mark? Well last week I was contacted by a patent paralegal who advised me that there was no way Microsoft could have intentionally selected that number, because they are assigned by the computer when submitted. So that makes the whole thing even more suspect.

There is no doubt that Artificial Intelligence (AI) is involved in implementing the Beast System, and it really sheds light on what we read in Revelation concerning the image of the Beast.

This all brings us back full circle from the beginning when man was made in the image of Elohim. The "nachash" was a dragon-like reptilian being that lost its' wings. That is why he is known as the serpent, and he has been trying to destroy the image of Elohim and create his own race since his deception in the Garden of Eden.

This is a struggle to alter our DNA because that is what classifies us as being in "the image of Elohim." As a result, it is no coincidence that we are seeing these RNA viruses at the center of the battle. It is a battle of the blood, because the life is in the blood. The enemy wants to defile all flesh just as occurred during the days of Noah when “all flesh was corrupted” by the fallen angels. (Genesis 6)

Now is the vaccine the “Final Solution” or simply laying the groundwork for the future 5G rollout or some other part of the plan? Who knows, and for that matter, who really cares?

You see, you can spend all of your time trying to expose the enemy and forget that you have work to do in the Kingdom. Yes, it is good to sound the alarm, but we need to be shouting from the housetops the true “Final Solution” to sin, plagues and death – Yahushua the Messiah.

After the letters to the seven assemblies in the text of Revelation we read about a door opening in the heavens and the voice of a shofar calling John up to the Throne Room. What John saw was nothing short of spectacular.

Interestingly, surrounding the Throne of YHWH are 24 Elders sitting on Thrones who fall down before Him and cast their crowns before His Throne and proclaim: “You are worthy, O YHWH, to receive glory and honor and power; for You created all things, and by Your will they exist and were created.” Revelation 4:11 That is not necessarily the best translation and another rendering might read “For your pleasure they exist and were created.”

So we understand that everything in existence was made by YHWH, for His pleasure. As a result, all of creation should be worshipping Him. That is why we were created. When we worship YHWH, we bow down and humble ourselves before Him which acknowledges Him as our Creator. That is exactly how the 24 Elders express their worship (Revelation 4:10)

But there is another throne that John describes: “And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals.” Revelation 5:1 Yahushua has a Throne at the right Hand of the Father and He is the only one worthy to open the Scroll.

Recall the promise to the Laodiceans: “To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.” Revelation 3:21

What an incredible promise and just as we spoke about the things Yahushua was doing during this period of the counting of the Omer, we must also understand that He is now seated upon the Throne. The scene that John described is happening now in that Throne Room, in another dimension.

So while we see the machinations and deception being perpetrated by the Beast System, we must remember that we have a great promise and invitation.

Our job is not to fight the Beast. Yahushua is destined to destroy the Beast. We are here to worship and praise YHWH and do the work of the Kingdom. That is our message of hope that we must take to the world!
