

In Vain They Worship Me

This article was published on Day 28 of Month 9 on the Creator's calendar, also known as December 4, 2021.

The word December comes from the Latin word "Deca". It literally means "the 10th month." So the month of December should be the 10th month of the year, but you are being told by Babylon that it is the 12th month.

Of course, December actually used to be the 10th month on the ancient Roman calendar, prior to 45 BC. In that year, Julius Caesar "changed the times". The Roman year used to begin with March, which is very similar to the Creator's calendar.

In 45 BC, the beginning of the year was set in January. January, of course, is named after Janus – the two-faced Roman god that looks to the past and the future.

So, Rome has its fingerprints all over the present reckoning of time utilized by much of the world. This divergence from a true reckoning of time makes for great confusion as most people have no idea what time it is on the Creator's Scriptural calendar

Those who follow the Creator's calendar anticipate Month 10 beginning at the sighting of the renewed moon after sunset tomorrow, December 5th.

So, everything points to time being at or near Month 10. Nevertheless, most of the world believes we are in month 12. Once again, the power of tradition triumphs over truth that is literally right in our face.

Speaking of tradition, we are in a time when powerful traditions control people's behavior.

Thanksgiving in America is now past, and that officially began the "Christmas season" with all of its lights, decorations, music and of course - shopping.

The masses of conditioned consumers began their frenzied buying spree on "Black Friday" and that continued on into "Cyber Monday". Americans will continue consuming on a massive scale, right on cue, all the way up to Christmas.

Very few recognize that they have simply been programmed and their actions are completely removed from the reality of Elohim. In fact, to many, this is an integral part of their religious celebration of Christmas, as they prepare to celebrate the birth of Christ.

Sadly, this all has nothing to do with the birth of the Messiah. Instead, people are operating in the realm of Babylon, and Christmas is one of Babylon's moadim. It is a Babylonian holy day, otherwise known as a holiday.

Christmas is an ancient pagan tradition, and if properly observed, it is supposed to fall on the winter solstice. The winter solstice is one of 4 "turns" (tequfot) that currently exist in creation.

There are two equinoxes that occur each year when the length of the light portion of a day and the dark portion of a day are equal.

The summer solstice is the point when the day is the longest, and we are approaching another one of those “turns” (tequfot) called the winter solstice. The winter solstice is the shortest day of the year.

The pagans typically focused their attention around these times, because they worshipped the hosts of heaven. That does not detract from their significance since it was YHWH Who made them all, and set them in motion for His purposes.

The Psalms say that “The heavens declare the esteem of Elohim; and the firmament shows His handiwork.” Psalm 19:1

Sadly, the celebration of Christmas is an example of how the pagans, particularly sun worshippers, profaned these “tequfot” through their religious practices.

Christmas derives from the winter solstice that used to fall on December 25 in more ancient times.

Due to the procession of the equinoxes, the winter solstice now falls on December 21. It has always been an important time for sun worshippers, because it is the shortest day, and therefore, the darkest day of the year.

From that point forward, the days get longer, so it is connected with the birth, or rebirth, of the sun. That is why the birthdays of most sun gods are connected with the winter solstice.

Yahushua was born on Day 1 of Month 7 which is Yom Teruah (Day of Blasting) – not December 25.

As the Roman Empire developed Christianity and separated it from its' Hebrew Roots, it adapted the new religion to pagan sun worship, making it easier for the pagans to "convert".

Of course, it wasn't necessarily a conversion, and in many ways simply involved redirection from Tammuz, Bacchus or Dionysus worship to Jesus – the child of Zeus. That is why Christianity also adopted certain pagan festivals such as Christmas and Easter.

When Yahushua, the Messiah of Yisrael, was born just over 2,000 years ago, it was on Day 1 of Month 7 on the Creator's calendar, which was the Appointed Time of Yom Teruah – the Day of Trumpets (Blasting).

That happened to be September 11, 3 BCE on the Gregorian calendar. This is discussed in detail in the article titled The Birth of Yahushua the Messiah on the Torah Calendar website.

So, if Christians really wanted to commemorate the true birth date of the Messiah of Yisrael, they would need to start reckoning time like the Creator set forth in Genesis 1:14-16, using the sun and the moon.

That would also require them to observe the Appointed Time of Yom Teruah. The problem is that the Roman derived religion of Christianity rejects the Appointed Times of the Creator, including the seventh day Sabbath.

Rome has instead decided to follow the traditions of Babylonian sun worship. In defiance to the authority of YHWH, Rome has instituted its own sabbath on Sunday – the Venerable Day of the Sun.

It also ignores the Commandments of YHWH, and refuses to meet Him at His prescribed Appointed Times. (see Leviticus 23) Instead, Roman Christianity has incorporated the pagan festivals of the christ mass, and the fertility rites of the goddess Ishtar, commonly known as Easter.

Most of you probably already know this, but it is important to be reminded that these are not minor oversights. They are intentional and monumental shifts that transfer the Christian religion and Christians out of the Covenant established by YHWH, and into the realm of lawlessness.

The Roman establishment of the Christian religion was a deliberate attempt by the enemy to divert the masses from the narrow and difficult way that leads to life, onto the broad way that leads to destruction. (Matthew 7:13-14)

This is why so many Christians will be weeping and gnashing their teeth, because they failed to heed the warnings of the Messiah Yahushua. (see Matthew 7:21-23; Matthew 22:1-14; Luke 13:24-30)

When Yahushua the Messiah was born, the winter solstice fell on December 23. So if people insist on commemorating His birth at Christmas, like the pagans celebrated 2,000 years ago, they might consider celebrating on December 23.

Instead, most Christians hearken back to the more ancient births of the savior sun gods Tammuz, Dionysus and Mithras, to name a few.

Once again, the power of tradition prevails. Even people who are acting like pagans and following pagan rituals fail to get it right because of traditions.

The Christian celebration of Christmas on December 25 reveals what is truly at the core of the Christian religion – Babylonian sun worship.

So, while most Christians think they are celebrating the birth of the Messiah of Yisrael on December 25, they are actually commemorating the traditional birth date of ancient sun gods.

This is why it is important to understand that Christianity is the religion of the Roman Empire. While it may contain fragments of truth from the faith of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, it does not follow the ways of the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Christianity ignores the very clear words of Yahushua, and uses the writings of Paul to essentially discard the Commandments. It is a lawless religion that does not follow the Covenant path provided in the very Bible that they profess to revere and follow.

This was one of the earth-shattering revelations that changed the path of my life decades ago, and led me to write the Walk in the Light Series over the course of 14 years while travelling to the promised Land seeking answers.

What I discovered was that Christianity actually follows pagan sun worship practices. It is essentially diverting people away from the Covenant of YHWH under the false teaching that we don't follow the Commandments because we are "under grace."

Many Christian Pastors and Teachers are sending people away from the narrow and difficult gate that leads to life as described by Yahushua. Instead, they are herding people toward the broad way that leads to destruction. (Matthew 7:13-14)

It really doesn't take much digging to figure this out once you step outside of the Christian bubble.

I already discussed the shopping and materialism associated with Christmas. If that's not bad enough, then add Christmas trees, Santa Claus, elves, flying reindeer, yule logs and not for the faint of heart – Krampus.

What on earth does any of that have to do with the birth of the Messiah? Of course, the answer is - nothing.

It all traces back to Nimrod and various pagan practices. Even the Prophet Jeremiah warned against some of these pagan practices.

“² Thus says YHWH: Do not learn the way of the Gentiles; Do not be dismayed at the signs of heaven, for the Gentiles are dismayed at them. ³ For the customs of the peoples are futile (vain); for one cuts a tree from the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax. ⁴ They decorate it with silver and gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers so that it will not topple. ⁵ They are upright, like a palm tree, and they cannot speak; They must be carried, because they cannot go by themselves. Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, nor can they do any good.” Jeremiah 10:2-5

The Scriptures forbid these practices and describe them as futile and vain. It is a form of idolatry that traces back to Babylon and the winter solstice traditions.

YHWH specifically tells His people not to worship Him like the pagans.

“² You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. ³ And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place. ⁴ You shall not worship YHWH your Elohim with such things.” Deuteronomy 12:2-4

Well, Christians generally don't heed those warnings. Instead, I see most of them setting up Christmas Trees in the living rooms, which represents the phallus of Nimrod.

They wish each other Merry Christmas and send little Christmas Tree emojis, fully acknowledging and celebrating a pagan right - in direct contradiction to YHWH.

They claim to follow Him, but they refuse to obey His Commandments.

Even when they are told that Christmas is a pagan ritual and an abomination, most continue their celebration, because it feels good. They enjoy their pagan traditions, and simply don't want to give them up.

They made a choice and they are no different from the Pharisees who Yahushua chastised by stating: “Why do you also transgress the Commandment of Elohim because of your tradition?” Matthew 15:3

Instead of worrying about Santa, who allegedly “sees you when you're sleeping and knows when you're awake”, I would be more concerned about YHWH who truly knows if you've been bad or good, or rather lawless or righteous.

I have said it before and I will say it again, it doesn't matter if you raised your hand to “accept Jesus” or said a prayer and “asked Jesus into your heart” at some point in the past.

The only question that matters is: Are trusting in YHWH for your salvation, and expressing your faith by obeying Him now?

Are you separated from the world and living a set apart life, or have you mixed in with world and participating in with the festivities? It's all a test and, so far, these are really easy tests.

So what if you don't get together with friends and family because they are acting like pagans. Maybe it's better to drive the point home, and take a stand for righteousness. Maybe you need to set an example for them. Otherwise, how will they know?

If you can't resist these minor temptations involving Babylonian traditions, you definitely won't be ready to shine as a light in the dark days to come.

I used to write these weekly messages assuming that everybody had read all of my books, but with all of the new subscribers I realize that is not always the case.

If you are new to all of this, I wrote in my book titled Restoration that America was actually a pagan nation, and that is the ultimate irony.

While I grew up believing that America was a Christian nation, I always viewed Christianity as the antithesis of paganism. It was a real awakening for me to realize that Christianity did not properly represent the teachings of the Messiah and, to the contrary, was actually a pagan religion.

Instead of being a set apart religion, Christianity actually adopted and integrated pagan practices of those people who "converted" into the faith through a process known as syncretism.

So, Christianity is actually an amalgamation of various pagan practices that can adapt in the same fashion that Alexander the Great spread Hellenism. That is why you see Christianity integrate so well with western cultures.

That is not what the people of Elohim are supposed to do though. They are not supposed to water down their faith, compromise and conform in order to “win souls.”

They are supposed to remain separate and set apart from their pagan friends, neighbors and even family members so as not to become infected or tainted by what YHWH describes as an abomination.

This is the struggle that so many coming out of mainstream Christianity face. Some have trouble stepping fully out of the snare.

“²⁹ When YHWH your Elohim cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, ³⁰ take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise. ³¹ You shall not worship YHWH your Elohim in that way; for every abomination to YHWH which He hates they have done to their gods; for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.” Deuteronomy 12:29-31

YHWH hates the pagan practices that surround us in this modern culture, and considers them a snare. He hates the pagan practices that Christians have adopted and sadly, most Christians are trapped in the snare of Babylon.

When the Scriptures warn “come out of her My people,” this is exactly what is being referred to. And the consequences of remaining in Babylon are deadly.

*“And I heard another voice from heaven saying,
Come out of her, My people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues.”*

Revelation 18:4

Ultimately, we have a choice to make. It is the same choice that people have had to make throughout history when their traditions conflict with the truth. You either choose to follow those traditions or you follow truth.

The celebration of Christmas is one of those choices that every Christian must deal with. We have already seen that the origin and timing is all pagan, and the Christian celebration of Christmas on December 25 is a complete fiction, including the name of the one who was supposedly born on that date.

There is no Commandment to observe December 25 as an Appointed Time, and there is no evidence that the Hebrew Messiah named Yahushua was born on that date.

In fact, we were given a specific sign to confirm that He was born on a specific Scriptural Appointed Time linked to the Kings of Judah, as well as the resurrection.

*“¹ Now a great sign appeared in heaven:
a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars.
² Then being with child, she cried out in labor and in pain to give birth.”*

Revelation 12:1-2

While Christians celebrate the birth of Jesus on December 25th, those who follow the Messiah commemorate the Birth of Yahushua on Day 1 of Month 7 on the Creator’s Calendar. A date that is specifically embedded in the Scriptures as a sabbath, a memorial and a set apart rehearsal.

*“In the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall have a shabbaton, a memorial of blasting (teruah),
a set apart convocation.”*

Leviticus 23:24

So, this involves more than just getting the date right. It is all about who you remember, and who you serve. Who do you look to for your salvation?

That is ultimately what brings “Joy to the World,” because “the Light has come.” Yahushua said “I am the Light of the World.” (John 8:12)

Yahushua should be the reason for the season on the Day of Blasting (Yom Teruah) in Month 7. Instead, Christians claim that Jesus is the reason for the season around the winter solstice. They are following the traditions of Babylon over the Truth of YHWH. This is a critical mistake.

In Acts we read: “Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved.” Acts 4:12

Not only are Christians celebrating at the wrong time, they are worshipping the wrong names. You cannot properly worship Elohim when you don't even know His Name.

Just because an English translation of the Bible replaces the Name of YHWH with the title “the LORD” does not mean it is correct. And just because an English Bible inserts the name Jesus for the Hebrew Messiah named Yahushua, does not mean it is proper to use that name.

The name Jesus is an English name deriving from a Greek name attributed to a child of Zeus.

The Hebrew language does not have a letter “J” and no language on the planet had a letter “J” when Yahushua was born in Month 7, and later died on a Roman execution stake in Month 1. In fact, the English language would not come into existence for approximately 15 centuries.

It was impossible for the Messiah to be named Jesus, and Jesus is not a translation or even a transliteration of His Hebrew Name. The name Joshua would be the closest English name – not Jesus.

This is also not hard to figure out with a little research, and it really matters that we get this right.

I remember having this discussion with my late mother-in-law, whose name is Mary Jane. She was raised in the Christian religion, and taught that the name of the Son of Elohim was Jesus.

When I told her that Jesus was not the real name of the Messiah, she was really taken back. When I revealed that His true Hebrew Name was Yahushua, her first response was that Jesus was His English name.

Well, we went around and around until I finally said “OK. I’ll just call you Marijuana from now on.” I’ll never forget the look on her face. She was shocked. How could I call her such an offensive thing?

I told her that was her name in Spanish, so I would just use her Spanish name from now on, even if offended her.

She got the point. She did not identify with the Spanish name Marijuana. She identified with the English name Mary Jane.

Likewise, Yahushua must be called by the Hebrew name that He is identified with, not some English name that never existed until the English language was invented.

It was tough to let go of Jesus, but I'm happy to say that she got it. She made the right choice. She chose the truth over tradition.

That is the ultimate test. If we love Him, then we love His Name and His ways, rather than the false traditions that we have been taught.

Every Christmas, people who claim to worship the Hebrew Messiah of Yisrael participate in a pagan ritual deriving from the Roman celebration of Saturnalia.

Indeed, the Christian celebration of Christmas is so closely connected to the worship of the Roman Mithras, that you could interchange Jesus and Mithras without much difference.

All of the traditions of Christmas come from paganism, including the Christmas tree and the decorations, warned by Jeremiah.

"But wait a minute" one might proclaim, "That's not what it means to me." "When I participate in these pagan rituals, I am doing it for Jesus, not to Nimrod or Mithras."

The simple fact is that it really doesn't matter what it means to you, but rather, what it means to YHWH.

The Scriptures tell us what it means to YHWH.

“²⁹ When YHWH your Elohim cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you displace them and dwell in their land, ³⁰ take heed to yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise. ³¹ You shall not worship YHWH your Elohim in that way; for every abomination to YHWH which He hates they have done to their gods; for they burn even their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. ³² Whatever I command you, be careful to observe it; you shall not add to it nor take away from it.” Deuteronomy 12:29-32

He hates it when we worship Him like the nations. It is an abomination.

Just like the Yisraelites coming out of Egypt, we have inherited false worship from the Nations. Rome convinced many that it was ok, and actually developed the ideal one world religion that can accommodate all pagans.

Those who are in the Covenant renewed by the blood of Yahushua are commanded not to mix pagan traditions with the worship of Elohim.

The celebration of Christmas is an abomination in the eyes of YHWH. It's that simple

Every year people have a choice to make. Will they separate from Babylon and follow truth, or continue in pagan traditions involving the worship of the hosts of heaven?

I produced a video entitled “Should Christians celebrate Christmas?” addressing this subject, and I invite you to watch it. Consider sending the link to friends and family who may still be immersed in pagan practices.

Now those who recognize that Christmas has pagan origins often look to Hanukkah as an alternative festival. Let's face it, most people grew up with those warm and fuzzy feelings around Christmas time, and they like it. It would be ideal to simply transfer all of those memories and emotion into something else – a new and different religious holiday.

As a result, many try to use Hanukkah as a substitute for Christmas, whether they are willing to admit it or not. That can be a mistake.

Hanukkah falls on Day 25 of Month 9 on the Scriptural Calendar, and it is an 8-day celebration that spans from December 1 to December 8 this year. It is not one of the moadim (Appointed Times) commanded in the Torah, although it is a time of historical, and even Scriptural significance.

I produced a two-part series several years ago on the subject of Hanukkah. It is actually very relevant for today. I encourage you to view them both if you haven't already. They are entitled "Hanukkah – To celebrate or not to celebrate? Part 1" and "Hanukkah – To celebrate or not to celebrate? Part 2".

At the end of Part 2, I encouraged people to use this time of reflection as a "reset" as we continue to separate from the world. It can be a time when we remember the cleansing of the former Temple, and commit to cleansing our own temples.

How amazing that the world is currently attempting its own "Great Reset" intended to corral the masses into a New World Order, and they are using salvation from a virus as the driving force.

They are unifying people around the hope of science and a vaccine that will actually pollute their bodily temples. Those who follow YHWH should be guarding and cleansing their temples.

If you chose to observe Hanukkah then you need to know how to tell time according to the Torah, because even the Jewish Calendar got it wrong this year. You also need to avoid all of the Jewish traditions associated with it.

I personally do not celebrate Hanukkah, because it is so intimately associated with Rabbinic Judaism, and the traditions of the Pharisees.

Yahushua spoke out against the leaven of the Scribes and the Pharisees, which was their doctrines and traditions. Last week we looked at the subject of binding and loosing.

The Scribes and the Pharisees thought they had the authority to interpret the Torah, and declare what was prohibited (binding) and authorized (loosing), according to the Torah. Yahushua ended up giving that authority to His disciples. (Matthew 18:18)

Let's examine an important passage where Yahushua addressed the traditions of the Scribes and Pharisees.

"¹ Then the Scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Yahushua, saying, ² Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread. ³ He answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of Elohim because of your tradition? ⁴ For Elohim commanded, saying, Honor your father and your mother; and, He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death. ⁵ But you say, Whoever says to his father or mother, Whatever profit you might have received from me is a gift to Elohim - ⁶ then he need not honor his father or mother. Thus you have made the Commandment of Elohim of no effect by your tradition. ⁷ Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying: ⁸ These people draw near to Me with their mouth, and honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. ⁹ And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the Commandments of men.” Matthew 15:1-9

So Yahushua was telling them that they were actually transgressing the Commandments through their traditions. Their traditions had actually been elevated above the Commandments of Elohim.

This is exactly what people are doing when they celebrate Christmas. It is not just an innocent divergence from YHWH, it is direct disobedience, and they are actually replacing the Appointed Times of YHWH with pagan celebrations.

The passage that Yahushua quoted from Isaiah is found in Isaiah 29 and reads as follows: “¹³ Therefore YHWH said: Inasmuch as these people draw near with their mouths and honor Me with their lips, but have removed their hearts far from Me, and their fear toward Me is taught by the Commandment of men, ¹⁴ Therefore, behold, I will again do a marvelous work among this people, a marvelous work and a wonder; For the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden.” Isaiah 29:13-14

The context of that prophecy was against the people of YHWH who He considered blind and illiterate. They had things “turned around.” Their traditions were opposed to the Commandments. It was like the clay trying to mold and shape the Potter. (Isaiah 29:16)

This is what it comes down to every day of our lives. Will we let the Potter mold and shape us, or will we defy and resist the work of His Hand?

There are many people who worship, but their worship is considered vanity. They are giving YHWH “lip service,” but their actions reveal what is truly in their heart.

Many people know the truth about Christmas, but they simply do not want to give it up. This demonstrates that even if we have truth, we must also have a love for the truth, otherwise we worship in vain.

Last week I spoke about true spiritual warfare, and Isaiah actually confirms that obedience from the heart is what really sets us free.

“¹ Cry aloud, spare not; Lift up your voice like a shofar; Tell My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. ² Yet they seek Me daily, and delight to know My ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the ordinance of their Elohim. They ask of Me the ordinances of justice; They take delight in approaching Elohim. ³ Why have we fasted, they say, and You have not seen? Why have we afflicted our souls, and You take no notice? In fact, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exploit all your laborers. ⁴ Indeed you fast for strife and debate, and to strike with the fist of wickedness. You will not fast as you do this day, to make your voice heard on high. ⁵ Is it a fast that I have chosen, a day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, and to spread out sackcloth and ashes? Would you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to YHWH? ⁶ Is this not the fast that I have chosen: To loose the bonds of wickedness, To undo the heavy burdens, To let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke? ⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out; When you see the naked, that you cover him, and not hide yourself from your own flesh? ⁸ Then your light shall break forth like the morning, your healing shall spring forth speedily, and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of YHWH shall be your rear guard. ⁹ Then you shall call, and YHWH will answer; You shall cry, and He will say, Here I am. If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, ¹⁰ If you extend your being to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul, Then your light shall dawn in the darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday. ¹¹ YHWH will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought, and strengthen your bones; You shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. ¹² Those from among you shall build the old waste places; You shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called the Repairer of the Breach, The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In. ¹³ If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on My holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the set apart day of YHWH honorable, and shall honor Him, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words, ¹⁴ Then you shall delight yourself in YHWH; and I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth, and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father. The mouth of YHWH has spoken.” Isaiah 58:1-14

These are amazing promises for those who simply submit themselves to the Commandments, and express their love for Elohim with all of their heart, being and strength. (Deuteronomy 6:4-5)

You don't need to go around actively engaging in spiritual warfare. YHWH promises to loose the bonds of wickedness, to break every yoke and set you free.

He states that He will heal you and be your rear guard. When you find yourself in the battle, you need to call upon Him and be heard. He fights your battles in the same way the he promised Abram that He would be his shield (magen). (Genesis 15:1)

We don't need to bind the devil, but we do need to bind His words. “Therefore you shall lay up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.” Deuteronomy 11:18

What we see happening all around us during the Christmas season is vanity. Many Christians think that their actions are worship, but their hearts are far from Him. It’s time to tear down the Christmas trees, and put up Mezuzahs.

It’s time to throw away your “Star of David,” which is really the star of Saturn, and raise up the Magen of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob – YHWH Elohim.

It’s time for everyone who claims to worship the Elohim of Yisrael to put up or shut up. Your actions demonstrate your heart more than words alone.

We need to write the Commandments on the doorposts of our houses and on our gates, and inscribe them on our hearts and in our minds so that we do them. That is the circumcision of the heart through the renewed Covenant. (Deuteronomy 30:6; Jeremiah 31:31-34)

It is time to reject the worship of Babylon and get cleaned up, if you want to dwell and serve in the House of Elohim.

“¹¹ Depart! Depart! Go out from there, touch no unclean thing; Go out from the midst of her, be clean, You who bear the vessels of YHWH. ¹² For you shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight; For YHWH will go before you, and the Elohim of Yisrael will be your rear guard.” Isaiah 52:11-12

The celebration of Christmas is unclean. We must depart from it and not touch it.

Christmas is only one obvious example how Babylon separates us from Elohim. We need to avoid all of the snares set to entrap us, so that our worship is not vanity to Him.

We must become true worshippers and always worship Him in Spirit and in truth.

“²³ But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. ²⁴ Elohim is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” John 4:23-24

Shema Yisrael (Hear O Yisrael) are the words that Yahushua spoke when asked what was the First Command.

*“The first of all the Commandments is: ‘Hear, O Yisrael, YHWH our Elohim, YHWH is one.’
Mark 12:29*

*“He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”
Matthew 11:15*
