

Staying pure and undefiled in the Days of Noah

Shalom All

Today is day 24 of Month 7 on the Creator's Calendar, also known as October 2, 2021 on the Roman Calendar.

The Appointed Times of Month 7 are now concluded. Yesterday was the traditional observance of Simchat Torah, when the Torah Scrolls are rolled "back to the beginning." Those who follow the traditional Torah portion schedule will now renew the cycle again - starting at Beresheet 1.

Typically, I would be in Jerusalem getting ready to return to New York after a couple weeks of excitement. Instead, yesterday I flew from Texas to New York.

The reality of what is happening in the world around us definitely has an impact on our observance of the Scriptures. While I travelled to the Land to rehearse the Appointed Times for 20 years, the implementation of lockdowns and vaccine requirements precluded me from continuing those rehearsals.

While I definitely miss the Land and the fellowship, I'm not going to cow tow down to the New World Order just so I can travel to the modern State of Israel.

Thankfully, YHWH had warned me in my spirit that Sukkot 2019 would probably be my last trip to the Land. At the time, I wasn't sure why. I thought maybe war was coming, but when the pandemic narrative kicked in, it became obvious.

So, despite my desire to continue rehearsing the Appointed Times in the Land, that would not be possible due to the reality on the ground.

Of course, I find that YHWH has a purpose in everything, and I had a very different Sukkot this year. I was actually flat on my back sick through most of it. Typically, I am busy "feasting" and "fellowshipping," but this year I was resting and reading.

I ended up in a lot more study, thought and prayer, and I needed that time. It was actually wonderful as I dove deeper into the fact that the ultimate rehearsal of Sukkot involves a Bride making herself ready to be with her new Husband, and then actually consummating that relationship.

Sometimes we lose sight of that in the midst of all the fun and excitement of our celebrations. I tried to share that truth in the message last week.

I was very happy that a precious family from Missouri stopped by to visit while they were "sukkoting" through Texas. We spent the Eighth Day together with some of the brethren, and it was a very special time of fellowship.

While flying back to New York yesterday I spent some time getting caught up on the new oppressive plans of the tyrants, and it became crystal clear that the United States is finished.

I know that there are some people holding out hope for a political messiah, but the entire house of cards is getting ready to collapse. Even if all of the evil people were replaced with righteous individuals, there is going to be a big mess to clean up when all is said and done.

The reality is that there are few righteous in any positions of power at this point. In fact, as New York saw the departure of the corrupted and disgraced Andrew Cuomo, his replacement has now brought a religious zealotry to the vaccine hysteria.

This week, Kathy Hochul, the Governor of New York, stated that the vaccine was a gift from God, and asked people to become her apostles in order to spread the gospel of the vaccine. She is proclaiming that God wants everyone to take the vaccine.

Her comments were so surreal and bizarre that it was as if she was reading a script from a low budget dystopian movie. Yet this is the reality that we currently live in.

The governor, and others like her, are literally deranged. They are clearly following common marching orders, because the science and the data point to a vaccine catastrophe mounting across the world. The facts are clear that the vaccinated constitute the majority of those being hospitalized and dying, and the numbers are just going to get worse as they continue to coerce and compel people to take the shots.

Facts do not matter though, and the agenda is going forward because dark forces are currently controlling the media and the agencies that are pushing the agenda. The people advancing the agenda are lying, and that should not be a surprise. Evil people lie, cheat and deceive – they hate the truth.

That was the lesson straight back from the garden, when the “nachash” literally accused Elohim of being a liar. “You will not surely die” he told the woman.

This is the same lie that we hear about the vaccine. You won't die. It will heal you and protect you. Those are absolute lies that are actually being proven false on a daily basis, although that does not change the narrative.

So, we are watching dark forces commit mass genocide right before our very eyes, and we are watching the enemies of America literally tear it down from within.

Take for instance the irony in the fact that the powers that be are claiming that if they don't raise the US Debt ceiling, then the United States cannot pay its' bills. It will be financial Armageddon.

At the very same time, these same people are advancing a $3.5 Trillion Dollar "Infrastructure Plan" that will "Build Back Better." Where on earth are they getting $3.5 Trillion Dollars when they can't even service the current debt?

What an unmitigated disaster, and very few are pointing to the financial tsunami that is about to crash onto this nation. All they are doing is making the wave bigger with all of this irresponsible spending.

This is like a bankrupt person with no job who is about to lose their home because of all their credit card debt. Instead of figuring out how to cut expenses and pay down their debt, they increase all of their credit lines, and then take out a loan for a yacht and a private jet. Maybe buy an island in the Caribbean to add some infrastructure, so they have a place to land their plane and park their boat. It's just sheer fiscal lunacy.

Well, the lunatics are running the asylum for sure, and they are busy dismantling and destroying the vestiges of what we once knew as America. Essentially, America is like a big shopping mall that is being pillaged, looted and set on fire as we stand by and watch.

There is apparently a fresh hoard of 60,000 Haitians on their way to the Southern border coming through Central America. Most of the last Haitians were given residency, and I suspect these will as well. This is all being organized by the likes of George Soros who are actively seeking to destroy America. The objective is to overwhelm the system and infiltrate society.

Honestly, it is almost a relief to come to the realization that America is receiving her judgment so that we can stop expending valuable energy trying to save her. There is work to be done for the eternal kingdom, and it makes it easier to simply focus on what is really important.

So, what do we do as we watch this literal insanity take place around us?

We currently have a cabal of evil, psychopaths leading this government, along with many corporations and organizations that are hell bent on getting you to take a vaccine.

They are following their marching orders, having been given promises of power, health and prosperity by the dark forces behind the New World Order.

Of course, these are the same forces that tried to take over the world in the days of Noah. In fact, they had just about succeeded as all flesh was described as being corrupted.

When Noah began building the Ark though, it must have been real cause for concern. It meant judgment was coming.

I wanted to keep this short as I regroup and rest on this Shabbat, but I also wanted to provide some real encouragement, because we truly can be at perfect peace as the world goes to pieces around us.

It is important to remember that the world was a very dark and evil place when Noah began building the ark. When you consider the bloodthirsty Nephilim and hybrid beings roaming the earth, it was the stuff of nightmares.

Nevertheless, Noah “walked with Elohim” and found favor through it all. One of his specific qualities was the fact that he was “perfect in his generations.” Genesis 6:9

The English word “perfect” is “tamiym” in Hebrew. It means “clean, pure, undefiled and without spot or blemish.” Interestingly, these are the same traits that Yahushua is looking for in His Bride.

We know that genetic corruption was rampant on the planet due to the activity of the Watchers, although Noah was set apart.

He didn’t mingle with the world and he wasn’t concerned about the world around him. He simply set himself to the task given to him by Elohim. He followed the instructions and finished the task, surrounded by evil.

We all owe our existence to Noah as we all come from one of his children.

Now I believe that we are living in the days described by Yahushua as “the days of Noah” – the days leading up to the coming of the Son of Man. (Matthew 24:37 and Luke 17:26)

As a result, we can look to Noah as an example for how to live in these days.

We simply need to remain set apart. Sure, the world is going to try to exert pressure on you. The evil will want to defile and destroy you, but you simply stand firm and stay focused on the task at hand. His people must “come out of her.”

Again, when you see these people as the corrupt, illegitimate, evil tyrants that they are, it makes it a lot easier to put things into perspective. They have chosen darkness and we must dwell in the light. As a result, we cannot pay attention to their lies or follow their instructions. You ignore them.

You do not have to obey these dark forces. We answer to the King, and there is nothing these evil people can say or do that can take our attention from our preparations. We are a Bride busy getting ready for the return of the King.

That was the lesson I hope we all rehearsed at Sukkot.

So let’s stay filled with oil and keep focused on the mission.

When the people of Elohim stop being fearful and start proclaiming the coming Messiah, it will be like Noah quietly building the Ark in the face of evil.

The message was clear then and it will be clear now: “Judgment is coming and your days are numbered.”

Here is what they have to look forward to: ¹¹ Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself. ¹³ He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of Elohim. ¹⁴ And the armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean (tamiym), followed Him on white horses. ¹⁵ Now out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty Elohim. ¹⁶ And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written: KING OF KINGS AND MASTER OF MASTERS. ¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather together for the supper of the great Elohim, ¹⁸ that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, both small and great.” Revelation 19:11-18

That should strike terror in the hearts of the evil ones, and be a cause to rejoice for the “tamiym” who walk with Elohim.

While the days of the evil are numbered and coming to an end, we have the hope of an ark of safety from the coming judgment, and even a place in His army.

That is definitely good news!

Shabbat shalom

We have some prayer requests posted in the Community section of our website. I encourage you to take some time reviewing posts, praying for people and posting your own comments or requests. We actually have a wonderful community that interacts through these weekly messages, but they basically funnel through me. It would be great if you all got to know one another as well!

Shema Yisrael (Hear O Yisrael) are the words that Yahushua spoke when asked what was the First Command.

*“The first of all the Commandments is: ‘Hear, O Yisrael,
YHWH our Elohim, YHWH is one.’
Mark 12:29*

*“He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”
Matthew 11:15*
